Digitized by Google

3. Qualifying Service.

(a) Officers with less than six months' reckonable full pay service (including service in the ranks) will not be eligible for gratuity.

(b) Service reckonable for gratuity must have been rendered within a period beginning on 3rd September, 1939, and ending on 15th August, 1946.

(c) Except where otherwise ordered by the Army Council, service reckonable for gratuity will be limited to that in respect of which the remuneration authorized has consisted solely of Army pay and allowances. Such service on the Indian or Burma establishment will count, and also such service with Colonial Forces as may be decided by the Army Council.

(d) Any continuous period of 28 days or less during an officer's service when he was not entitled to full pay and any period of duly authorized agricultural leave will be regarded as reckonable service.

4. Rank on which gratuity is based.

The gratuity will be assessed upon the substantive or war substantive rank held by an officer on his ceasing to be employed, or, if more favourable, upon the highest paid rank held during the war for a period or for periods amounting to six months in all. Service in any higher paid rank will reckon towards the six months' qualifying period in a lower rank.

5. Method of Issue.

The gratuity will be credited by the Officer i/c Army Pay Office (Officers' Accounts), Manchester, to a personal account of the officer in the Post Office Savings Bank, unless otherwise ordered by the Army Council.

6. Officers with previous service in the ranks.

The gratuity in respect of service in the ranks will be assessed separately at the appropriate rate laid down for such service (see Army Order 2 of 1946), and the total amount due in respect of both commissioned service and service in the ranks will be credited by the Officer i/c Army Pay Office (Officers' Accounts), Manchester, as described in paragraph 5 above. If the aggregate of any days in excess of the completed months of service in the ranks and of commissioned service respectively amounts to 30 or more days, one extra month's gratuity will be granted at the rate appropriate to commissioned service.

7. Officers with previous commissioned service in the Royal Navy, the Royal Marines, the Army or the Royal Air Force.

In the case of an officer who has rendered previous commissioned service reckonable for gratuity in the Royal Navy, the Royal Marines, the Army or the Royal Air Force, the reckonable periods will be aggregated for the purposes of both service and rank entitlement, provided that the award made on the aggregated service will be reduced by the amount of any separate award of war gratuity already made in respect of any service included in the aggregation.

8. Non-entitled classes.

The gratuity will not be admissible in the case of :—

(a) officers whose services are terminated by death by sentence of a military or civil court ;

(b) officers who die in a state of mutiny or desertion ;

(c) officers whose services are dispensed with for misconduct (unless otherwise ordered by the Army Council) ; and officers whose services are dispensed with for other causes which, in the opinion of the Army Council disqualify them for the grant of gratuity ;

(d) officers employed during the emergency under Article 520 (a), Pay Warrant, 1931, or Article 498 (a), Pay Warrant, 1940.

9. Non-reckonable service.

The following service will not reckon for gratuity :—

(a) Any continuous period of more than 28 days for which full pay was not admissible (other than duly authorized agricultural leave).

(b) Any period during which the officer was not on the active list.

(c) The period of release leave and overseas service leave granted under Regulations for Release from the Army, 1945, or the period of any notice leave which began on or after 8th May, 1945.

(d) In the case of an ex-prisoner of war, who is admitted to a Civil Resettlement Course under arrangements made by the Army Council, any period after admission to the course.

10. Deceased officers.

(a) Where a person in respect of whose service a gratuity is payable under this Warrant dies after the date of the Warrant, but before the issue of the gratuity, the gratuity shall be paid as a sum standing to the credit of the deceased and shall be applied and disposed of as personal estate of that person in the hands of the Secretary of State at the death of that person.

Digitized by Google

(b) Where such a person has died before the date of this Warrant, the gratuity shall not be placed to the credit of the deceased or paid as part of his personal estate, but may be paid either—

(i) to the personal representatives of the deceased for the purpose of being disposed of as if it were part of the personal estate of the deceased; or

(ii) to or for the benefit of such persons as the Secretary of State thinks fit, having regard to any information in his possession as to the persons interested in the estate of the deceased.

11. Persons of unsound mind.

Where a person in respect of whose service a gratuity is payable under this Warrant is of unsound mind, the gratuity shall, in cases to which Section 24 of the Regimental Debts Act, 1893, is applicable, be applied and disposed of in accordance with that Section, and in other cases shall be applied by the Secretary of State for the benefit of that person in such manner as the Secretary of State may think fit, and the gratuity may for that purpose be invested by deposit in a military or other Savings Bank or otherwise and, if necessary, in the name or names of a trustee or trustees for the person in respect of whose service the gratuity is payable.

Army Council's instructions on the foregoing Warrant

1. Colonial Forces, etc.

(a) Officers of Colonial forces whose terms of service include a provision for pay otherwise than as laid down in the Pay Warrants, 1931 or 1940, and officers for whom the Pay Warrant, 1940, Articles 269, 270 or 273, provide special rates of pay are not covered by this Warrant. The war gratuity admissible to such officers has been detailed in separate instructions.

(b) British service officers serving with the Colonial Forces will be eligible for gratuity under this Warrant, notwithstanding that they may have been in receipt of Colonial rates of pay.

(c) Full paid Colonial service from 3rd September, 1939, rendered by an officer serving on a Governor's Commission is reckonable for gratuity under this Warrant if he has been subsequently granted a British Army emergency commission, notwithstanding sub-para. (a) above.

2. Calculation of service.

Service will be calculated in complete years and days. Broken periods will be added together, and in the aggregate each complete year will reckon as 12 months and every 30 additional days will reckon as a month. Thus an officer with 4 years' 190 days' reckonable commissioned service (consisting of two periods of 2 years 200 days and 1 year 355 days) would receive 54 months' gratuity. An officer referred to in paragraph 6 of the Schedule with 1 year's 14 days' service in the ranks and 1 year's 18 days' commissioned service would receive 12 months' gratuity for service in the ranks and 13 months' gratuity for commissioned service.

For the purpose of calculating six months as the minimum qualifying period, either for an award of gratuity or for entitlement to gratuity in a particular rank, an aggregate period of 180 days will be taken.

3. Dates of payment.

(a) Officers released or whose services terminate during the release period.—Gratuities granted to officers released in Class A or Class B, or to officers whose notice leave began on or after 8th May, 1945, will be payable 57 days after the beginning of their release leave or notice leave. Officers granted indefinite release on compassionate grounds on or after 8th May, 1945, will be granted the gratuity as soon as practicable after their release.

(b) Non-effective officers.—Officers whose notice leave began before 8th May, 1945, or who ceased to be employed before that date will receive their gratuities as soon as practicable. Such officers will be required to make their claims on A.F. X 305 to the Officer i/c Army Pay Office (Officers' Accounts), Manchester.

(c) Regular officers.—In the case of Regular officers who continue to serve after 15th August, 1946, instructions as to payment will be issued at a later date.

4. Non-reckonable service.

The effect of para. 3 (c) of the Schedule is to exclude, from qualifying for the gratuity, service in the following appointments remunerated from Army Funds or from other sources at civilian rates of pay :—

Officers employed and paid by N.A.A.F.I.
Army audit staff.
Lands Branch staff.
War artists.
Asiatic Petroleum Company's personnel.
Photographers (still), prior to the date on which they were brought on to full military rates of pay.
Civilian radio maintenance officers.

NOTE : Service during which an officer received " balance of civil pay " is not excluded.

5. Payment otherwise than by deposits in the Post Office Savings Bank.

(a) Deceased officers and officers certified as of unsound mind. In the case of officers who are deceased or whose services have been terminated because of their being certified as of unsound mind or who have died or have been certified as of unsound mind since leaving the Army, the sums due will be reported by the Officer i/c Army Pay Office (Officers' Accounts), Manchester, to the War Office (Effects Branch).

(b) Officers released or repatriated abroad. Separate instructions have been issued indicating where, in this class of case, payment may be made by direct remittance to the officer.

6. Non-entitled classes.

(a) The classes of officers referred to in para. 8 (c) of the Schedule will include those who have been removed from the Army or are called upon to resign their commissions for reasons of misconduct or, in special cases, on account of adverse report; those who have been dismissed from the service or cashiered, and those who have been invalided from the service for self-inflicted injuries in respect of which they were convicted of offences under the Army Act. No gratuity will be issued in these cases except where specially authorized by the War Office.

(b) When an officer's full pay service is terminated under the conditions of Articles 526 or 526A, Pay Warrant, 1940 (or a corresponding article of the Pay Warrant, 1931) no gratuity will be admissible under this Warrant, but in certain cases the service may reckon towards gratuity under the Warrant relating to soldiers.

(c) The gratuity is not payable to Southern Rhodesian officers, who, by assent, received only pay from British Army Funds and who by the terms of their agreements are eligible for gratuities from the Southern Rhodesian Government.

7. Officers commissioned from the ranks.

Post-war credits due in respect of service in the ranks will be issued by the Officer i/c Army Pay Office (Officers' Accounts), Manchester, at the same time as gratuity is issued. Instructions have been issued to Regimental Paymasters regarding the notification of post-war credits to the Army Pay Office, Manchester, in such cases.

*8. Personnel who enlist or re-enlist in the ranks of the Army after a period of Army commissioned service.

The gratuity in respect of both non-commissioned and commissioned service (if admissible) will be issued by the appropriate Regimental Paymaster.

* Separate instructions have been issued to the appropriate Army paying authorities as to the machinery for dealing with cases under paragraphs 8 and 9.

*9. Personnel who have served in more than one Service.

The Service in which an individual last served on service rates of pay during the gratuity-earning period will be responsible for issuing the gratuity in respect of his combined service. Thus, if an individual serves in, say, the R.A.F. after a period of Army service, the R.A.F. paying authorities would issue his gratuity in respect of his combined qualifying service in the R.A.F. and the Army.

10. Income Tax.

Gratuities awarded under this Warrant will not be subject to Income Tax.

ROYAL WARRANT

30/GENERAL A/156 A.O. 2/1946

War Gratuity of Soldiers

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS WE deem it expedient to provide for the grant of a war gratuity to warrant officers, non-commissioned officers, men and boys of Our Army, in respect of service during the present emergency;

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that gratuities on the scale and under the conditions laid down in the Schedule attached to this our Warrant shall be awarded to soldiers of Regiments or Corps, the depots of which are in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man, who were enlisted within those areas, and that gratuities may be awarded to such other soldiers as Our Army Council may determine, at such rates and under such conditions as Our Army Council may in their discretion decide.

OUR FURTHER WILL AND PLEASURE IS that soldiers who enlisted in Our Regular Army for a normal period of service shall be eligible for the gratuities provided in this Our Warrant in addition to any gratuities for which they may be eligible under the provisions of Articles 1056 to 1058 of Our Warrant for the Pay, Appointment, Promotion and Non-Effective Pay of Our Army dated 29th February, 1940, and notwithstanding Article 1060 thereof, or under the corresponding provisions of Our Warrant dated 12th February, 1931.

* Separate instructions have been issued to the appropriate Army paying authorities as to the machinery for dealing with cases under paragraphs 8 and 9.

Lastly it is OUR WILL AND PLEASURE that the provisions of Articles 9 and 25 of Our afore-mentioned Warrant, dated 29th February, 1940, shall be applicable to the war gratuities granted under this Our Warrant as if they were emoluments granted by Our Warrant aforementioned.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this 18th day of January, 1946, in the 10th year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

J. J. LAWSON.

2. Rates.—The rates of gratuity admissible according to rank for each completed month of reckonable service will be as follows :—

(c) Except where otherwise ordered by the Army Council, service reckonable for gratuity will be limited to service with the Colours in respect of which the remuneration authorized has consisted solely of Army pay and allowances.

4. Rank on which gratuity is based.—(a) Except as stated in (b) below, the gratuity will be assessed upon the substantive or war-substantive rank held by the soldier at the date of termination of his reckonable service or, if more beneficial, upon the highest paid rank or lance appointment held during the war for an aggregate period of six months; service in any higher paid rank or lance appointment will reckon towards the six months' qualifying period in any lower rank or appointment. (b) Where a soldier's rank has been reduced for disciplinary reasons, the gratuity will be assessed on the rank to which he has been reduced, or any higher rank or lance appointment subsequently attained which would qualify under the conditions of sub-para. (a) above.

5. Non-entitled classes.—Gratuity will not be admissible in the case of a soldier :—

(a) whose service was terminated in any of the following circumstances :—

(i) death by sentence of a military or civil court;
(ii) death in a state of mutiny or desertion;
(iii) discharge under King's Regulations, 1940, paragraph 390, sub. paras. (xi), (xii) or (xiii);
(iv) transfer to a Reserve and immediate discharge therefrom under Army Council Instruction 1073 of 1942, as amended by Army Council Instruction 1323 of 1944, where, but for the provisions of that Instruction, discharge would have been carried out under one of the headings at (iii) above; provided that any further service rendered after discharge under (iii) and (iv) above will qualify for gratuity under the conditions of this Warrant.

(b) who was discharged on appointment to a commission and whose commissioned service was terminated owing to a sentence of penal servitude or by one of the causes mentioned at (i) and (ii) of sub-paragraph (a) above. (See also paragraph 8.)

(c) who was discharged for conscientious reasons as a result of his appearance before an Examining Tribunal.

(d) who was invalided on account of a self-inflicted wound or injury in respect of which he has been convicted of an offence under the Army Act.

6. Non-reckonable service.—The following service will not be reckonable for gratuity :—

(a) Unmobilized service in any portion of the Royal Army Reserve or Supplementary Reserve, or any unembodied service in the Territorial Army.

(b) On an engagement during which a soldier has been found guilty or has had his trial dispensed with, on a charge of desertion or fraudulent enlistment, all service on that engagement prior to the date of such conviction or dispensation with trial, unless the service is subsequently allowed to reckon under the provisions of paragraph 7 below.

(c) Any continuous period of more than 28 days in respect of which pay is inadmissible ; or any periods arising out of the same act or occasion which amount in all to more than 28 days in respect of which pay is inadmissible. Periods of duly authorized agricultural leave, even if of more than 28 days, will, however, be reckonable.

(d) In the case of a soldier who has been sentenced to penal servitude by either a military or a civil court, all service prior to the date of such sentence unless such service is subsequently allowed to reckon under the provisions of paragraph 7 below.

(e) The period of release leave and overseas service leave granted under Regulations for Release from the Army, 1945 ; also the period of any terminal leave which began on or after 8th May, 1945.

(f) In the case of an ex-prisoner of war who is admitted to a Civil Resettlement Course under arrangements made by the Army Council, any period after admission to the course.

7. Restoration of Service.—A soldier who has forfeited service for gratuity under the conditions of paragraph 6 (b) above may be allowed to reckon the service for war gratuity, subject to the other conditions of this Warrant :—

(a) If the service has been (i) restored under the provisions of paragraph 266, King's Regulations, 1940, or (ii) allowed to reckon for pay under Article 925 (bbb), Pay Warrant, 1940, or under paragraph 9 (c) of the Schedule to Army Order 14 of 1943, or (iii) allowed to reckon for Long Service and Good Conduct pay under Article 1019 (b), Pay Warrant, 1940, or (iv) restored for release purposes under Appendix Q of Regulations for Release from the Army, 1945,

or (b) on the authority of a superior commander, not below the rank of major-general, subject to the following conditions :—

(i) if he has been specifically recommended for an award or mention for gallantry by an officer not below the rank of lieutenant-colonel ; or

(ii) after holding the rank of corporal for at least three months or on promotion to a higher rank (substantive, war-substantive or acting rank shall reckon for this purpose) ; or

or (c) in the case of a soldier who has been discharged or who has left his unit for release, on the authority of the Officer i/c Records, subject to the conditions of (b) (ii) or (iii) above.

(d) Cases not covered by (a) or (b) above may be submitted for consideration by the Army Council for the restoration of the service for war gratuity if recommended on the grounds of specially meritorious or good and faithful service, or where the soldier is otherwise deemed to merit such restoration.

8. Soldiers with Commissioned Service.

(a) In the case of soldiers who, during the war, have rendered commissioned service which qualifies them for a gratuity on the scale applicable to officers (see Army Order 1 of 1946), the two gratuities shall be assessed separately on the commissioned and other rank service respectively.

(b) Except as stated in para. 5 (b), the termination of commissioned service for misconduct will not disqualify a soldier for the award of gratuity in respect of previous service in the ranks, but, if no gratuity is admissible for the commissioned service in such cases, periods of service in the ranks preceding and following the commissioned service will be assessed separately, and will not be aggregated.

(c) Where a soldier was commissioned from the ranks and his service as an officer was terminated under the conditions of Article 526 or 526A, Pay Warrant, 1940 (or a corresponding Article of the Pay Warrant, 1931) the period of commissioned service so terminated will be added to his service in the ranks, and will be reckonable for gratuity under the terms of this Warrant according to the rank admissible in respect of his service in the ranks.

9. Soldiers with previous service in the Royal Navy, the Royal Marines, the Army or the Royal Air Force.—In the case of a soldier who has rendered service reckonable for war gratuity on a previous engagement in the Royal Navy, the Royal Marines, the Army or the Royal Air Force, the service, other than commissioned service, will be aggregated for the purpose of the assessment of gratuity under this Warrant, for purposes of both service and rank entitlement (except as provided in para. 8), provided that the award made on the aggregated service will be reduced by the amount of any separate award of war gratuity already made in respect of any service included in the aggregation.

10. Method of Issue.—Gratuities awarded under this Warrant will be credited to personal accounts of the recipients in the Post Office Savings Bank, unless otherwise ordered by the Army Council.

11. Deceased soldiers.

(a) Where a person in respect of whose service a gratuity is payable under this Warrant dies after the date of the Warrant, but before the issue of the gratuity, the gratuity shall be paid as a sum standing to the credit of the deceased and shall be applied and disposed of as personal estate of that person in the hands of the Secretary of State at the death of that person.

(b) Where such a person has died before the date of this Warrant, the gratuity shall not be placed to the credit of the deceased or paid as part of his personal estate, but may be paid either—

(i) to the personal representatives of the deceased for the purpose of being disposed of as if it were part of the personal estate of the deceased; or

(ii) to or for the benefit of such persons as the Secretary of State thinks fit, having regard to any information in his possession as to the persons interested in the estate of the deceased.

12. Persons of unsound mind.

Where a person in respect of whose service a gratuity is payable under this Warrant is of unsound mind, the gratuity shall, in cases to which Section 24 of the Regimental Debts Act, 1893, is applicable, be applied and disposed of in accordance with that Section, and in other cases shall be applied by the Secretary of State for the benefit of that person in such manner as the Secretary of State may think fit, and the gratuity may for that purpose be invested by deposit in a military or other Savings Bank or otherwise and, if necessary, in the name or names of a trustee or trustees for the person in respect of whose service the gratuity is payable.

Army Council's instructions on the foregoing Warrant

1. Soldiers enlisted abroad.

(a) Soldiers enlisted abroad in Regiments or Corps, the depots of which are situated in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man, will be awarded gratuity under this Warrant, provided that they have been eligible, throughout their service on such engagements, for the rates of pay normally admissible for British soldiers of such Regiments or Corps.

(b) British soldiers seconded or attached to units of the Dominion or Colonial forces will be eligible for gratuity in respect of such service, but gratuity under this Warrant is not admissible (i) for soldiers recruited abroad into Regiments or Corps, the depots of which are situated in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man, if their terms of service include a provision for pay at rates other than those normally admissible for British soldiers of such Regiments or Corps, or (ii) for locally recruited soldiers of the Colonial forces. Separate provision has been made for war gratuity for these soldiers.

(c) Gratuity is not payable under this Warrant to Southern Rhodesian soldiers who, by assent, received only pay from British Army funds, and who, by the terms of their agreement, are eligible for gratuities from the Southern Rhodesian Government.

2. Calculation of service.

Service will be calculated in complete years and days. Broken periods will be added together and, in the aggregate, each complete year will reckon as 12 months and every 30 additional days will reckon as a month. Thus, a soldier with 4 years' 190 days' service (consisting of two periods of 2 years 200 days and 1 year 355 days) would receive 54 months' gratuity.

For the purpose of calculating six months, as the minimum qualifying period either for an award of gratuity or for entitlement to gratuity in a particular rank, an aggregate period of 180 days will be taken. A soldier with less than six months' service in the ranks may be regarded as satisfying the qualifying period if he has service as a commissioned officer which brings his total service up to six months or more.

3. Dates of payment.

(a) Soldiers released or discharged during the release period.

Gratuities awarded to soldiers released in Class A or Class B, or to discharged soldiers whose terminal leave began on or after 8th May, 1945, will be payable 57 days from the beginning of their release leave or terminal leave. Soldiers who are granted indefinite release on compassionate grounds after 8th May, 1945, will be granted the gratuity as soon as practicable after their release.

Digitized by Google

(b) Soldiers discharged before the release period.

Gratuities awarded to discharged soldiers whose terminal leave began before 8th May, 1945, will be issued as soon as practicable after payments under sub-para. (a) have begun, concurrently with any sums due in respect of post war credits and overseas service leave. These men will be required to make application to their respective Regimental Paymasters on A.F. X 305.

(c) Regular soldiers.

In the case of Regular soldiers who continue to serve with the Colours after 15th August, 1946, instructions as to payment will be issued at a later date.

4. Non-reckonable service.

(a) The effect of the definition in paragraph 3 (c) of the Schedule is to exclude from eligibility for the gratuity service in respect of which remuneration, either from Army funds or otherwise, has been at civilian rates of pay or at special rates, unless special instructions to the contrary are given.

Service in the following classes is excluded by the definition :—

Soldiers on the E.R.E. List paid otherwise than at Army rates of pay (but see sub-para. (c) below).

Asiatic Petroleum Company's personnel.

Photographers (still) prior to the date on which they were brought on to Army rates of pay.

Service with R.A.S.C./E.F.I. or E.N.S.A., in respect of which N.A.A.F.I. rates of pay (including the element of Army pay prescribed by Army Order 220 of 1942) has been issuable.

(b) Service in the following classes is not excluded :—

(i) Men enlisted as T.A. instructors under the terms of War Office letters, 9/Gen./3238 (A.G.1.C), dated 19th April, 1939, and 5th May, 1939, and 30/Misc./2879 (A.G.1.C), dated 22nd May, 1939, whether they received the special inclusive rates of pay or later elected normal Army rates of pay and allowances.

(ii) British Army personnel who received colonial etc. rates of pay during their period of service with forces in the colonies or countries concerned.

(iii) Personnel who during their service with the Army received " balance of civil pay ".

(c) The service of soldiers on the E.R.E. List to whom the terms of War Office memorandum 112/Misc./3622 (A.G.1.(B)), dated 31st December, 1942, apply, will, by the special direction of the Army Council, be reckonable (subject to the other conditions of this Warrant), notwithstanding sub-para. (a) above.

Digitized by Google

A certificate will be given to Paymasters by the employing organization showing whether service is reckonable in these cases.

Any cases of doubt under these sub-paragraphs should be referred to the War Office (F.2.M) for decision.

(d) For the purpose of calculating a period exceeding 28 days as non-reckonable, separate periods in relation to any one offence will be aggregated, e.g., where a soldier was absent for 12 days, under open arrest on re-joining, and later sentenced to 21 days detention for the absence, the total number of days on which pay was forfeited, viz. 33, will be disallowed.

5. Denied service.

Former service that was denied on a man's re-enlistment is not thereby debarred from reckoning for gratuity and may be aggregated with the later service, subject to the other conditions governing awards.

6. Non-entitled classes.

The cases of men relegated to and discharged from the Reserve under Army Council Instruction 1073 of 1942 because they were recommended for discharge under King's Regulations, 1940, paragraph 390 (xii), will be referred to the War Office (F.2.M) for decision as to eligibility for gratuity.

7. Payment otherwise than by deposit in the Post Office Savings Bank.

(a) Soldiers deceased or discharged as of unsound mind, or who have died or become of unsound mind since discharge.

The sums due in these cases will be reported to the War Office (Effects Branch) on Army Form O 1815 (original or supplementary).

(b) Soldiers released or repatriated abroad.

Except where the soldier is released in, or repatriated to, a country outside the sterling area, the sums due in respect of gratuity (and also post-war credits and overseas service grant) will be notified to the paying authority in the country of repatriation, for issue at the end of the release or terminal leave; where repatriation has already taken place, payment will be made by direct remittance on the soldier's application.

Separate instructions will be issued regarding the method of payment to soldiers released in, or repatriated to, countries outside the sterling area.

8. Income Tax.

Gratuities awarded under this Warrant will not be subject to Income Tax.

9. Regular Soldiers—Pay Warrant Gratuity.

Gratuities payable under this Warrant will not affect entitlement of Regular soldiers to gratuities under the provisions of Articles 1056 to 1058 of the Pay Warrant, 1940, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 1060 thereof. Periods of notice leave, release leave and overseas service leave will be reckonable for gratuities awarded under Articles 1056 to 1058 of the Pay Warrant, 1940. In cases where an overseas service grant is given in lieu of leave, the period covered by the grant will not be reckonable.

Pay and Allowances, etc., during release leave or terminal leave.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS WE deem it expedient to make special provisions governing the benefits to be granted during the period following the end of hostilities in Europe to or in respect of personnel of Our Army who are released from military service or who have died in military service or have been discharged since 3rd September, 1939;

LASTLY IT IS OUR WILL AND PLEASURE that the provisions of Articles 9 and 25 of our aforementioned Warrant dated 29th February, 1940, shall be applicable to all forms of pay granted under this Our Warrant as if they were emoluments granted under Our aforementioned Warrant.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this 18th day of January, 1946, in the 10th year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

J. J. LAWSON.

SCHEDULE

PART I—GENERAL

A.—Scope of this Warrant.

1. This Warrant governs the benefits to be granted during the period following the end of hostilities in Europe to or in respect of personnel released under the provisions of the Regulations for Release from the Army, 1945, or who die or have died in the Service or who are discharged or have been discharged since 3rd September, 1939.

2. This Warrant is applicable to all male officers, nursing officers and male other ranks of the British Service, as defined in Regulations for Release from the Army, 1945.

3. The term " discharged " as applied to officers will be read as meaning relegation to unemployment (other than temporary relegation, whether for a fixed period or otherwise, with a view to subsequent return to the Service), transfer to the half-pay list, relinquishment, termination or resignation of commission, or retirement.

B.—Release Benefits.

4. Release benefits for the purpose of this Warrant consist of :—

(a) Class A release leave—56 days' paid leave.
(b) Class B release leave—21 days' paid leave.
(c) Overseas service leave—one day's paid leave for each complete month's overseas service for personnel who have served a total of at least six months overseas since 3rd September, 1939. Service which is non-reckonable for age and service grouping under Regulations for Release from the Army, 1945, para. 305(c) (i) to (v), will not reckon for overseas service leave, but overseas service forfeited under para. 305 (c) (vi), whether restored or not, will count for overseas service leave.

Digitized by Google

(d) Overseas service grant—a monetary grant in lieu of overseas service leave calculated as in (c) above.

(e) Post war credits (see Army Orders 72 of 1942 and 17 of 1943).

(f) War gratuity—the rates and conditions of issue of war gratuity will be as laid down in Army Orders 1 and 2 of 1946.

(g) Conveyance of personnel and their dependants.—The conditions under which such conveyance will be granted will be laid down in a separate Warrant.

5. Release leave will be in lieu of, and not additional to, any other leave (except overseas service leave as defined above), for which an officer or soldier is eligible at the time of leaving the Service for the purpose of release or discharge.

6. Class A releases.

Personnel released in Class A will be granted 56 days' release leave and (if admissible) overseas service leave. As an exception to the normal rule, personnel repatriated to or released locally in a country abroad will receive, in addition to the 56 days' release leave, overseas service grant in lieu of overseas service leave. Post war credits will be issued in all cases as soon as possible after the end of the release leave; unless otherwise ordered by the Army Council, these will be issued by means of a credit to a Post Office Savings Bank account to be opened in the name of the individual concerned.

7. Class B releases.

Personnel released in Class B will be granted 21 days' release leave. Overseas service leave will not be granted, but overseas service grant (if admissible) and post war credits will be issuable 57 days after the beginning of the release leave. Unless otherwise ordered by the Army Council, post war credits will be credited to a Post Office Savings Bank account to be opened in the name of the individual concerned.

8. Compassionate releases (Class C).

(a) Personnel granted compassionate release for a definite period (which will not normally exceed six months) will not receive any release benefits; but after their return to the Service they will become eligible for the normal benefits on their subsequent release, according to their class.

(b) Personnel granted indefinite release on compassionate grounds after the beginning of the release period will receive the same benefits as authorized for those released in Class A, except that they will not be eligible for the 56 days' release leave, and that they will receive overseas service grant in lieu of overseas service leave.

9. Discharges, etc.

Personnel, including officers holding permanent regular commissions, whose service on full pay is or has been terminated otherwise than by release under the Regulations for Release from the Army, 1945, and for reasons other than misconduct will be dealt with as follows :—

(a) Where full pay service is terminated otherwise than for the following reasons :—

(i) release on compassionate grounds ;
(ii) release for industrial or other civil employment ;
(iii) voluntarily (termination of service of a nurisng officer for pregnancy will not be regarded as voluntary termination of service) ;
(iv) for appointment to a commission ;
(v) to enter the Royal Navy, Royal Marines, Royal Air Force, or Dominions, Colonial or Allied Forces ;
(vi) by transfer to a reserve or relegation to unemployment temporarily (whether for a fixed period or otherwise) with a view to subsequent return to service ;
(vii) by discharge under King's Regulations, 1940, para. 390 (xviii) (a), for conscientious reasons as a result of appearance before an Examining Tribunal ;
(viii) by invaliding on account of a self-inflicted wound or injury in respect of which a person has been convicted of an offence under the Army Act ;

(1) If the terminal leave or notice leave granted prior to termination of service began on or after 8th May, 1945, the same release benefits as for Class A releases (see para. 6) will be granted in lieu of the normal terminal or notice leave, provided that the individual (unless invalided from the Service) has completed not less than six months' service on full pay.

(2) If the terminal or notice leave began before 8th May, 1945, no additional leave will be granted, but overseas service grant (if admissible) and post war credits (if not already issued) will be granted under arrangements notified by the Army Council. Post war credits will be issued by means of a credit to a Post Office Savings Bank account to be opened in the name of the individual concerned, unless otherwise ordered by the Army Council.

(b) In the case of compassionate release (Sub-para. (a) (i) above), if indefinite release was granted before general releases began, the benefits referred to in (a)(2) above will be admissible. Indefinite compassionate release granted after general releases began is treated as Class C release (see para. 8(b) above).

Digitized by Google

(c) In the case of release for industrial or other civilian employment (Sub-para. (a) (ii) above), if indefinite release was granted before Class B releases were authorized, post war credits and overseas service grant will be admissible as for Class B releases (see para. 7 above), but no payment in lieu of the 21 days' leave is admissible. Payment will be made under arrangements notified by the Army Council.

(d) Personnel whose full pay service has terminated voluntarily (Sub-para. (a) (iii) above) will be eligible for the benefits referred to in (a) (2) above, irrespective of the date of termination of service.

(e) Where service has terminated under Sub-para. (a) (vii) or (viii) no benefits are payable under this Warrant except post war credits, which will be payable as in (a) (1) or (a) (2) above, according to whether the date of discharge was on or after 8th May, 1945, or before that date.

(f) In all other cases referred to under Sub-para. (a) the benefits authorized by this Warrant will not be admissible on such discharge, unless specially authorized by the Army Council.

10. Deaths.

(a) Overseas service grant will not be admissible in respect of personnel who die or have died in the Service.

(b) Overseas service grant will be payable in respect of personnel who die or have died after termination of full pay service, if they were qualified by service, and provided that they have not previously received overseas service leave or grant. The grant will be payable as early as practicable after notification of death is received.

(c) Where a person in respect of whose service overseas service grant is payable under Sub-para. (b) dies after the date of this Warrant, but before the issue of the grant, the grant shall be paid as a sum standing to the credit of the deceased and shall be applied and disposed of as personal estate of that person in the hands of the Secretary of State at the death of that person.

(d) Where such a person has died before the date of this Warrant, the grant shall not be placed to the credit of the deceased or paid as part of his personal estate, but may be paid either—

(i) to the personal representatives of the deceased for the purpose of being disposed of as if it were part of the estate of the deceased; or

(ii) to or for the benefit of such persons as the Secretary of State thinks fit, having regard to any information in his possession as to the persons interested in the estate of the deceased.

C.—Pay and allowances during leave.

11. During the period of release leave and overseas service leave (including the leave admissible under para. 9 (a) (1) above) personnel will be entitled to pay and allowances under normal rules, subject to the exceptions set out in Part II of this Schedule (relating to Pay) and Part III (relating to Allowances). The overseas service grant will, except where otherwise stated in Parts II and III of this schedule, be the sum of the pay and allowances which would have been admissible if the leave had been granted at the time of discharge or release.

D.—Temporary or acting rank prior to release.

12. Any paid temporary or acting rank or lance appointment held when an officer or soldier leaves his unit for the purposes of release will be retained up to the end of the leave period.

E.—Civil Resettlement Courses for ex-prisoners of war—pay and allowances.

13. In the case of an ex-prisoner of war who is admitted to a Civil Resettlement Course before his release or discharge becomes effective under arrangements made by the Army Council, the pay and allowances authorized by para. 11 above for periods of release leave, etc., will be admissible also for the period of the course and (where a course begins after release leave has started) for any additional leave granted prior to admission to the course; except that ration allowance will not be admissible during a course.

PART II—PAY.

The following are the exceptions (referred to in Part I, para. 11) to the normal rules governing pay, additional pay, and all other forms of pay as laid down in the Pay Warrant, 1940, and in separate Army Orders and Army Council Instructions.

1. For releases under Classes A and B, pay will be at the rate appropriate to the highest paid rank or lance appointment held at any time since 8th May, 1945, or, in the case of those whose release leave begins more than a year after that date, the highest paid rank or lance appointment held during the year preceding such leave. In determining this rate the following conditions will apply :—

(a) A rank or appointment which has been lost by disciplinary action will not reckon for this purpose.

(b) Account will be taken of the total period of service rendered up to the date upon which release leave begins where that affects the rate of pay.

(c) The rate will be that currently authorized for the rank or appointment in question, if that is different from the rate appropriate at the time the rank or appointment was previously held.

Digitized by Google

(d) If a soldier was in receipt of tradesman's rates of pay in the higher rank or appointment, the rate will be the appropriate tradesman's rate for that rank; but where (owing to upgrading) the rate of a soldier's existing rank is more favourable than the rate as determined in this sub-para. the current rate will be issued.

(e) Except as stated in sub-para. (f) the rate will be that admissible at home, i.e., payment under the Indian code or the grant of Japanese Campaign pay will not be admissible. This rule will apply irrespective of the location of the officer or soldier during his release leave.

(f) For personnel with reserved rights to consolidated rates applicable to the African Colonial Forces, the rate will be the appropriate consolidated rate for the rank, less an appropriate deduction in respect of servant allowance and other benefits (e.g., fuel, light, lodging) for which personnel on British rates of pay receive no leave allowance.

2. No further increases of pay for service, and no further promotion or reclassification will be admissible in respect of service after the beginning of release leave; similarly, no reduction in the rate of pay which might otherwise have become operative will be carried out. Thus the rate of pay admissible at the beginning of the leave will be "frozen" and not subjected to any change either upwards or downwards.

3. All forms of extra pay (including additional pay, staff pay, command pay, etc.), will cease to be admissible during periods of release leave and overseas leave, except the following items which will continue to be admissible provided that they were in issue on the day before the leave begins :—

(a) Corps pay, engineer pay and signal pay (excluding additional pay issuable under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 332). Corps, etc., pay may be restored to those officers who were not eligible for it on the day before the leave began because they were in receipt of staff pay.

(b) Q.A.I.M.N.S.—Specialist pay under the Pay Warrant 1940, Article 748; additional pay granted under Article 747 to a Sister nursing patients suffering from infectious diseases.

(c) Extra pay for Corps of Military Police, Military Provost Staff Corps and other rank personnel of the Intelligence Corps employed on field security duties.

(d) N.C.Os. or orderlies admitted to Q.A.I.M.N.S.—additional pay under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 898.

(e) Personnel of the Royal Signals employed as Cipher Operators—additional pay under Army Order 88 of 1942.

(f) Divers—additional pay under Army Order 133 of 1942.

(g) Parachute pay, glider pilot pay, airborne pay (including additional pay for Air Observation Post Pilots and Air Despatch Crews).—See Army Order 110 of 1945. The higher regimental rates of this additional pay may be restored to those officers who, being in receipt of staff, command, etc., pay, were drawing lower rates concurrently.

(h) War service increments (but no additional increment will be admissible).

Post war credits will continue to be admissible, subject to the normal rules.

4. The restrictions in pay to which other ranks are liable under Army Order 86 of 1944 will be modified to the following extent :—

(a) Deductions from pay to meet a qualifying, contributory or voluntary allotment or a compulsory stoppage of pay to meet maintenance or affiliation orders will be unchanged, except as provided in Part III of this Schedule.

(b) Where restrictions are required to meet debts on the soldier's account or other public claims against him, cash issues will not be reduced below a minimum of 3*s.* a day, unless a voluntary allotment continues in issue ; in that case, cash issues may be reduced to a rate equal to 3*s.* a day less the daily amount of the voluntary allotment. For the purpose of this sub-para., where a voluntary allotment is in issue to a dependant (other than a wife or special dependant in respect of whom family allowance or special dependant's allowance is in issue) only the amount by which the voluntary allotment exceeds the rate of contributory allotment which would be required if a dependant's allowance were in issue will be taken into account.

(c) The restrictions under sub-para. (b) will not be continued for more than 13 weeks.

5. The provisions of paras. 1 to 4 will be applicable to any terminal leave granted under paragraph 9 (a) (1) of Part I of this Schedule.

6. For the purpose of the overseas service grant, the rate of pay admissible will be the actual rate last in issue (but excluding any form of additional pay or extra pay other than those excepted under para. 3). In the case of other ranks discharged or released on or after 1st January, 1942, and before 1st July, 1946 (during which period post war credits were operative), an additional 6*d.* a day will be admissible in lieu of post war credits.

PART III—ALLOWANCES

The following are the exceptions (referred to in Part I, para. 11) to the normal rules governing Allowances.

A.—Allowances (other than travelling allowance)—Officers and other ranks.

1. Ration allowance will be admissible at the leave rate applicable to the United Kingdom wherever release takes place.

2. Single rates of lodging, and fuel and light allowances will not be admissible.

3. (a) Colonial Allowance, Dominions Allowance, Mediterranean Allowance, Far East Allowance, and the special allowances payable in China, Russia and the U.S.A. will not, except as provided in (b) below, be admissible during the period of leave.

(b) Where the family of an officer or soldier is already abroad in a country, other than the country where the officer or soldier takes his leave, and in respect of whom the married element of Colonial or Dominions Allowance is already in issue, such allowance will continue until the family embarks to join the officer or soldier or has a reasonable opportunity to do so or until the end of the officer's or soldier's leave period, whichever is the earlier.

Officers

4. Servant allowance will not be admissible.

5. Officers entitled to married allowances under Army Order 33 of 1942 will receive the allowances prescribed in Part I of that Army Order for officers residing with their families in the United Kingdom, wherever they are released and whatever the situation of their families, except that officers in Category B will not receive single rates of allowances in addition to family lodging allowance. Where, however, the family is abroad and separated from the officer who at the time his release leave begins is in receipt of local rates of family lodging allowance, such allowance will continue to be issued until the family embarks to join the officer or has a reasonable opportunity to do so, or is joined by the officer or until the end of the officer's period of leave, whichever is the earliest.

6. Officers of local Forces entitled to married allowances will receive the allowances applicable when residing with their families whether they in fact reside with their families or not.

Other Ranks

Family Allowance

7. No adjustment will be made in the rate of allowances payable in respect of a child who, during the period of leave, is sent to an approved school or enters an institution, etc., or ceases to receive full-time education.

8. (a) In the event of the death of a child, the allowance will normally be adjusted from a current date without recovery of the amount over-issued, and if it is the only child, the wife's allowance will continue in issue at the rate applicable to a wife with a child for the remaining period of leave. Similarly, the wife's allowance will continue in issue at the rate applicable to a wife with a child for the remaining period of leave if pre-natal allowance is being paid in connexion with the expected birth of a first child and a report of still-birth is received.

(b) In the event of the death of the wife who was in receipt of family allowance for herself and a child or children, the allowance will be reduced to the " home maintained " rate for motherless children, for the remaining period of leave.

9. Moves in and out of the London Postal Area will be ignored for the purpose of the issue of London Allowance.

10. Where the rate of pay issuable during the leave period is that of a former higher rank, adjustment will be made in the rate of qualifying allotment only in the case of a soldier whose existing rank is below that of serjeant, and family allowance for the wife or for motherless children is in issue at the inclusive rate of 35*s.* or 27*s.* a week respectively.

11. The benefits of family rations and married rates of Colonial Allowance at stations abroad, for which soldiers on the Married Establishment are eligible, will not apply during the period of leave, except that when a family is separated from the soldier by the exigencies of the service and is in receipt of local rates of allowances which include, inter alia, the married element of Colonial Allowance (see para. 3 above) and/or the issue of rations or ration allowance in lieu (see para. 17 below), the local allowances in respect of the family will continue during the period of leave until they embark to join the soldier or have a reasonable opportunity to do so, or until the end of the soldier's leave period, whichever is the earlier.

12. For the purpose of the overseas service grant the rate of family allowance admissible will be the actual rate in issue from Army Funds at the date of discharge, and the allowance will be paid to the soldier.

Dependants' Allowance

13. In the case of ordinary dependants' allowance, no fresh claim will be admitted during the period of leave.

14. Ordinary dependants' allowance will continue at the rate in issue at the beginning of the leave period, changes in the circumstances of the dependant's household being disregarded, but the allowance will cease (a) if the dependant dies, or (b) in the case of both ordinary dependants' allowance and supplementary allowances, if the rate of allotment or stoppage is so increased at the beginning of the leave period by reason of the soldier receiving pay of a former higher rank, as to meet the full allowance admissible.

15. For the purpose of the overseas service grant, the rate of ordinary dependants' allowance or supplementary allowance granted under paragraph 17C, D or E of Army Order 196 of 1941 (as amended) will be the actual rate in issue from Army Funds at the date of discharge.

Digitized by Google

Any allowance from Army Funds granted under paragraph 17 or 17A of Army Order 196 of 1941 (as amended) in supplementation of a compulsory stoppage will be disregarded.

16. The exceptions set out at paragraphs 7 to 10 and 12 above for family allowance will apply to the issue of special dependants' allowance. No fresh claim will be admitted during the period of leave.

Family Rations or allowances in lieu

17. Where at a station abroad family rations or an allowance in lieu are in issue, such issues may continue until the family embarks to join the soldier or has a reasonable opportunity to do so, or until the end of the soldier's period of leave, whichever is the earlier.

Kit Allowance

18. Kit allowance will continue to be admissible.

Uniform Allowance (Nursing Officers)

19. The annual grant and the additional grant of uniform allowances for officers of the Q.A.I.M.N.S. and cognate services authorized under paras. 1 (b) and (c) of the Schedule to Army Order 224 of 1943 will not be admissible in respect of the periods of leave.

B—Travelling Allowance

Travelling allowance in respect of journeys at the public expense on release (except on release in classes B and C in the United Kingdom or Eire) or on compulsory termination of services (as defined in Part I of this Schedule, para. 9) will be admissible as follows :—

(a) Journeys within the United Kingdom or Eire—

Other Ranks	...	...	3*s.* 0*d.*

These rates may be suitably increased in the case of long journeys to specified areas by the authority of the Army Council.

(b) Journeys within countries abroad—

(i) When a journey, or period of necessary detention at a port of disembarkation when accommodation and food are not provided, extends overnight—

Officers	...	...	16*s.* 0*d.* a night
Other Ranks	...	...	10*s.* 0*d.* ,,

(ii) When the journey does not extend overnight—as in (a).

Army Council's Instructions to Articles 739–739C

1. Except for nursing officers of the Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service there will be no substantive promotion during a national emergency. Substantive promotion will be administered by the War Office.

2. Acting Rank.—(a) Acting rank will be granted or re-granted only to fill vacancies within approved war establishments. Promotions will be made by the Commander-in-Chief to fill vacancies in the approved establishments of Units serving in a war area or by the War Office in other cases. All promotions to acting rank and relinquishments thereof will be published in Part II Orders issued by General Headquarters in a theatre of war and by Command Headquarters in the case of other Commands.

One notification only will be required on the appointment of a nursing officer to unpaid acting rank and her subsequent appointment to paid acting rank after more than 21 days in the higher rank. When unpaid rank only is granted a notification will be necessary.

(b) A nursing officer holding unpaid acting rank who becomes absent from duty on account of wounds, injury or sickness will not be eligible to have such rank converted to paid acting rank unless she returns to her unit for duty within 28 days from the date on which she first became absent. She may, however, be required to relinquish such unpaid acting rank at any time.

(c) Paid acting rank granted before 1st January, 1946, and held continuously beyond 31st December, 1945, will be reckonable for conversion into temporary rank at the end of the appropriate qualifying period or on 1st January, 1946, whichever may be the later.

3. Temporary Rank.—(a) Temporary rank when applicable will be granted or re-granted only to fill vacancies within approved war establishments.

(b) Temporary rank may be retained in the circumstances and for the periods laid down in Part II of Army Council Instruction 1144 of 1944.

(c) Promotions to temporary rank will be carried out in the War Office and notified in War Office Orders.

4. Acting and Temporary Rank.—(a) A nursing officer while she remains on the strength of her unit or formation will not be required to relinquish acting or temporary rank when absent on—

(i) Leave for a period not exceeding 28 days. Rank will not be relinquished for periods of leave exceeding 28 days in such circumstances as may be separately notified from time to time.

(ii) Temporary duty. When an officer is absent on temporary duty in excess of 61 days or when it is known that such absence is likely to exceed 61 days the case will be referred to the War Office by the quickest available means for decision whether such officer shall remain on the strength of the unit or formation.

(b) A nursing officer who is taken prisoner-of-war or becomes missing whilst holding acting or temporary rank will retain such rank so long as she is a prisoner of war or missing (under the conditions of Army Order 155 of 1944) and for such subsequent period or periods as may be authorized.

(c) A nursing officer who is holding paid acting or temporary rank on the date she is struck off the strength of the unit on account of wounds, injuries or sickness will retain such rank in accordance with such provisions of Army Order 153 of 1944 as are appropriate.

SCHEDULE

1. Short service regular commissions in such arms of the Service as may be required will be granted to suitable officers holding non-regular commissions (other than those referred to in paragraph 6 below), for a period of eight years, of which three, four or five years will be spent on the active list and the balance on the Reserve.

2. Such commissions will be granted in the substantive rank equivalent to the substantive or war substantive rank held by the applicant at the time of his appointment and with his original seniority in such rank. Where, for any reason, an officer cannot be appointed in the rank equivalent to his war substantive rank, he may, on his own application, be accepted in a lower rank.

3. Generally, short service regular commissions will be granted, irrespective of the rank or age of the applicant.

4. Officers granted short service regular commissions will receive pay and allowances at current rates appropriate to their rank and arm of the Service, subject to any change which may be introduced for the Army at any time.

5. On the satisfactory completion of the full active list period for which officers have engaged gratuities will be payable at the rates shown below.

(i) Normal scale

For 3 years' active list service	...	£337 10s.
,, 4 ,, ,, ,, ,,	...	£450
,, 5 ,, ,, ,, ,,	...	£562 10s.

,, 5 ,, ,, ,, ,,	...	£625.

(iii) No gratuity will be payable to officers whose active list service is prematurely terminated for misconduct or on voluntary resignation.

6. Ex-regular soldiers holding emergency commissions whose service is at present reckonable towards an award under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 634, may be granted short service regular commissions for a minimum period of active list service of seven years, or such longer period as is required to enable them to complete 15 years' service reckoning under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 541, towards retirement on retired pay. No subsequent reserve liability will be attached to such commissions.

Digitized by Google

Short service regular commissioned service will reckon towards an ultimate award under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 634, as if it had been given in an emergency commission. The terms of paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 above will apply to such ex-regular soldier applicants holding emergency commissions.

7. An officer who is granted a permanent commission during the currency of his short service commission will not be eligible for any gratuity or retired pay under the above terms, but will reckon his service on a short service commission towards an ultimate non-effective award under the conditions applicable to permanent regular officers.

Army Council's instructions on the foregoing Warrant.

1. The provisions of this Warrant do not apply to officers of the R.A.Ch.D., R.A.M.C., R.A.V.C., A.D. Corps, Q.A.I.M.N.S. and cognate services and A.T.S.

2. Applications will be submitted in accordance with A.C.I. 511 of 1946.

3. Para. 3 of the Schedule. The grant to an officer of a short service regular commission will depend on the prospects of employing him for the full period on the active list, having regard to his age and rank.

THE WAR OFFICE,
11th June, 1946

ROYAL WARRANT

46/GENERAL/1954 A.O. 94/1946

Allowances—Ration, Lodging, Marriage, Furniture and London Allowances, and Service Grants

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS WE deem it expedient to make provision for the issue of ration, lodging, marriage, furniture and London allowances, and Service Grants to officers and other ranks of Our Army, other than those serving on the Indian or Burma establishment;

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that the provisions of Part I of the Schedule to this Our Warrant shall apply on and after 1st July, 1946, unless otherwise provided therein or in Part II of the Schedule, subject to the general instructions in Section 1 of the Regulations for the Allowances of the Army, 1944;

OUR FURTHER WILL AND PLEASURE IS that officers and other ranks who by reason of age are not eligible for marriage allowances under Part I of the Schedule to this Our Warrant may receive Service Grants under the terms of Part III of the Schedule;

OUR FURTHER WILL AND PLEASURE IS that, where the provisions of this Our Warrant are at variance with the provisions of the King's Regulations for the Army and the Royal Army Reserve, 1940, the Regulations for the Territorial Army (including the Territorial Army Reserves) and for County Associations, 1936; the Regulations for Officers of the Supplementary Reserve of Officers and for the Supplementary Reserve, 1939, or the Regulations for the Militia (other than the Supplementary Reserve) 1939, the instructions contained in this Our Warrant shall override the provisions of the said regulations;

LASTLY, IT IS OUR WILL AND PLEASURE that, in consequence of the above certain regulations and instructions issued under Our several Warrants shall be cancelled or modified as provided in Part IV of the Schedule to this Our Warrant.

SCHEDULE

A.—RATION ALLOWANCE

1. Ration allowance will be issuable to officers and other ranks who are in receipt of full pay, other than pay at an inclusive rate which includes an element in lieu of rations in kind or ration allowance, in the following circumstances :—

(i) Unmarried personnel.—When, in receipt of lodging allowance, save when in exceptional circumstances, although in receipt of lodging allowance, they become dining members of a mess because they are unable to obtain meals in lodgings.

(ii) Unmarried personnel.—When the O.C. unit decides it is impracticable for them to be dining members of a mess.

(iii) Married personnel.—When living with their families.

(iv) Married personnel.—When separated from their families and in receipt of lodging allowance or when ineligible for lodging allowance and it is impracticable for them to be dining members of a mess.

(v) All personnel.—When in receipt of the nightly rate of travelling allowance.

(b) While not on duty.

(i) While on sick leave ;

(ii) When on ordinary leave or furlough ;

(iii) When unposted and not attached to a unit for duty ;

(iv) When unable for military reasons to remain with or return to the unit, formation, etc., to which they are posted or attached.

The allowance will not be issued during periods of absence on leave of 24 hours or less to officers and other ranks who are dining members of a mess.

2. Ration allowance will not be issued in the following circumstances :—

(a) To personnel for whom food is provided in kind at public expense, e.g., when fed in mess, hospital, military or civil custody or prison, or when subsisted on board ship.

(b) To personnel absent without leave.

(c) To personnel who would otherwise be fed in mess but elect to make their own arrangements.

(d) To personnel who would otherwise feed in mess but who are unable to do so owing to their participation in functions not of a purely military nature in respect of which no additional expense to public funds is admitted, e.g., paid band engagements, tournaments, tattoos, etc.

Digitized by Google

(e) To personnel who although not found guilty on a charge of absence without leave or desertion were nevertheless not in the place where their duty required them to be.

The allowance will not, however, be withdrawn in circumstances set out in (a), (b) or (e) from personnel who were already receiving the allowance in lieu of provision in kind if the relevant period does not exceed 24 hours.

3. The rate or rates of ration allowance for home stations will be determined by the Army Council and promulgated in separate instructions. At stations abroad the rate or rates of ration allowance will be fixed by the G.O.C.-in-C. in accordance with instructions issued by the Army Council. The rates will be published in Command Orders from time to time.

4. In exceptional cases where the cost of subsistence exceeds the ration allowance normally admissible, a special rate of ration allowance may be approved by the Army Council on the recommendation of the G.O.C.-in-C.

B.—LODGING ALLOWANCE

1. Lodging allowance, intended to meet the cost of furnished accommodation, fuel and light and service, is issuable in the circumstances and under the conditions set out below, to the following persons, provided that they are eligible for, and in receipt of full pay at a rate which does not include provision for accommodation, and are not in receipt of a special allowance or grant which includes such provision :—

(a) Unmarried officers and other ranks.

(b) Married officers and other ranks in receipt of marriage allowance who are separated from all members of their families in circumstances which could not reasonably be avoided, as defined in para. 2 below.

(c) Married officers and other ranks not in receipt of marriage allowance.

2. To satisfy the condition in para. 1(b) separation must be due to one of the following causes* :—

(a) The exigencies of the Service, i.e., where the officer or other rank is posted to a station to which families are not allowed to proceed or at which they are not allowed to remain.

(b) The absence of suitable accommodation at the husband's station.

* During the present emergency lodging allowance, where otherwise admissible, has been paid to married personnel separated from their families whatever the cause of separation. This arrangement will continue to apply, as a temporary measure, until 31st December, 1946. See Army Council's Instructions to Section B, para. 9.

(c) The decision of the officer or other rank not to be accompanied by his family when he is posted to a station at which the G.O.C. is satisfied that he is not likely to remain for more than six months from the date of joining the station and would be put to undue expense by moving his family to the station for the period of limited duration.

(d) The impossibility or undesirability for medical reasons, certified by the appropriate military medical authority, of the family proceeding to a station to which the officer or other rank is posted or of the family remaining at the station at which he is serving.

(e) The impossibility of a widower making adequate arrangements for the accommodation of his family at his station.

In other special circumstances which he considers justify such a course, a G.O.C. may authorize the issue of lodging allowance, when a married officer or other rank is separated from his family which includes children.

Claims for lodging allowance by married officers and other ranks must, where necessary, be supported by a certificate by the G.O.C. indicating that the necessary condition is satisfied.

3. Lodging allowance will be issuable to personnel referred to in para. 1 in the following circumstances :—

(a) When on duty at their permanent station or at a temporary duty station, if accommodation cannot be provided or they are excused from occupation of quarters under King's Regulations, 1940, para. 1393, provided that in the case of temporary duty the nightly rate of travelling allowance is not in issue.

When absent from their permanent stations on temporary duty lodging allowance if in issue at the permanent station may be continued, if lodgings are retained, paid for, and not sublet, subject to a certificate* being furnished to this effect, provided that the period of absence is not expected to exceed 61 days. The latter condition may be relaxed by the G.O.C. in special cases if warranted by the circumstances.

(b) When on sick leave—so long as full pay is in issue, provided that they do not remain in quarters, and except as provided in para. 5.

(c) When on unposted leave or when unable for military reasons to remain with or return to the unit, formation, etc., to which they are posted or attached, except as provided in para. 5.

(d) When on ordinary leave or furlough, if the allowance was in issue at the duty station—while lodgings at the station are necessarily retained and paid for and not sublet (a certificate* being furnished to this effect) within the following maximum periods in any one year—

Other ranks	...	28 days

Any period during which lodging allowance is granted under para. 8 below will count against these periods. Also, any leave or furlough taken while quarters were allotted will be deducted from the above periods, but ordinary leave or furlough granted to other ranks pending discharge or transfer to the Reserve will not count against the above periods. In the case of officers payment will not be made for a period of leave which will exceed 31 days unless the G.O.C. is satisfied that economical arrangements could not be made to terminate the occupation of lodgings or to sublet them.

(e) When in hospital, if the allowance was in issue at the duty station for a period not exceeding 61 days, while lodgings at the station are retained, paid for, and not sublet (a certificate* being furnished to this effect). When the period exceeds 31 days in the case of a warrant officer, or 14 days in the case of an N.C.O. or man, payment will be subject to the authority of the G.O.C.

4. (a) Officers at educational establishments, either on the instructional staff or as students, may continue to receive lodging allowance under the conditions in para. 3(d) while on leave during authorized vacations of the establishment without limit, but the allowance will not be issuable during leave taken outside vacation periods unless the total of the vacation periods is less than 61 days, when the allowance may continue, if otherwise admissible, to complete 61 days.

(b) Officers on the staff of educational establishments, other than those referred to in (a) above, e.g., commandants, quartermasters, adjutants, technical officers, chaplains, medical officers, will be entitled to lodging allowance during leave under the conditions of para. 3(d) whether the leave is taken during term or vacation periods.

(c) Other ranks of the A.E.C. serving in schools, may continue to receive lodging allowance under the conditions in para. 3(d) during any leave or furlough taken during authorized vacations, but not during leave or furlough taken outside authorized vacations.

5. Married officers and other ranks separated from their families will normally be expected to rejoin them while on sick or unposted leave. They will not be entitled to lodging allowance as provided in paras. 3(b) and (c) if they join their families, except that an officer or other rank who joins his family while on sick leave may continue to receive lodging allowance if in issue, in respect of accommodation necessarily retained at his permanent station within the period stated in para. 3(d) subject to a certificate that the lodgings were retained, paid for, and not sublet.

* The provisions of Army Order 60 of 1944, under which certificates are dispensed with in the case of absences not exceeding 14 days, will continue to apply until further notice.

6. The daily rates of lodging allowance are as follows :—

General Officers	20	0
Brigadiers	17	0
Colonels and Lieutenant-Colonels	14	0
Majors, Captains, Lieutenants and Second-Lieutenants	11	0
Warrant Officers	5	0
Staff-Serjeants and Serjeants	3	6
Other Ranks below Serjeant	2	6

7. When, owing to unforeseen circumstances incidental to his military service, an officer or soldier in receipt of lodging allowance is unexpectedly transferred without notice to another station or into quarters at the same station and necessarily incurs expenses in respect of the vacation of his lodgings, the G.O.C. may, on his application, allow him relief in respect of such expenses within a maximum amount equivalent to lodging allowance for 15 days. The conditions of Section D, para. 16(e) and (f) will also apply.

8. Where band engagements undertaken in accordance with King's Regulations, 1940, para. 1434, involve the absence from normal military duties of the personnel taking part, lodging allowance if in issue may continue under the conditions prescribed for ordinary leave or furlough but issues will only be admissible in diminution of any unexpired balance of the periods specified in para. 3(d).

C.—FURNITURE ALLOWANCE

1. Furniture allowance at the rate of 3*s.* 6*d.* a day will be issuable to unmarried officers when allotted unfurnished Group V or larger quarters, and similarly to married officers who are allotted such unfurnished quarters when separated from their families in circumstances set out in Section B, para. 2.

2. The allowance will be issuable only when the quarter is occupied by the officer to whom it is allotted. It will not be issuable to an officer who is permitted to occupy a vacant unfurnished quarter instead of occupying other furnished accommodation which would otherwise be provided for him.

Digitized by Google

3. The allowance may continue during an officer's absence on ordinary leave, sick leave, and while in hospital or absent on temporary duty so long as the quarter is retained but within the periods for which lodging allowance may be continued in similar circumstances.

4. When an officer who is receiving furniture allowance and is hiring furniture is, owing to unforeseen circumstances incidental to his military service, unexpectedly transferred to another station or to furnished quarters at the same station the G.O.C. may, on his application, allow him relief in respect of expenses necessarily incurred in terminating the hiring agreement within a maximum of £3.

D.—MARRIAGE ALLOWANCE

1. Definition.

Marriage allowance is an emolument of the officer or other rank and is granted to assist him in meeting his current family obligations.

2. Persons entitled.

(a) Marriage allowance will be admissible, as provided in the following paragraphs, to officers and other ranks entitled to and in receipt of full pay from army funds, unless they are in receipt of an inclusive rate of pay which precludes the issue of the allowance, provided that they are married, or are widowers maintaining families as defined in para. 5 below, and have reached the age of 25 years in the case of officers or 21 years in the case of other ranks.

(b) Marriage allowance will also be admissible to officers under the age of 25 years who were serving as officers and were married or widowers on 30th June, 1946, and were then entitled to allowances in respect of their families, or would have been in receipt of such allowances but for the fact that their families were in occupation of public quarters, provided that their service on the active list has continued since 30th June, 1946, without a break. Similarly, marriage allowance will be admissible to other ranks under the age of 21 years who were married or widowers on 30th June, 1946, and then entitled to family allowances, provided that their service on the active list has been continuous since 30th June, 1946, without a break.

(c) Officers who, on being commissioned after 30th June, 1946, while under the age of 25 years are receiving marriage allowance as other ranks may continue to receive such allowance, subject to the rules applicable thereto, until they reach the age of 25 years.

(d) Officers and other ranks who are divorced may receive marriage allowance as provided in para. 8.

Digitized by Google

(e) Officers and other ranks who are not entitled to marriage allowance because they are below the prescribed age may be entitled to a Service Grant as provided in Part III of the Schedule.

3. Conditions of issue.

(a) Marriage allowance will be issuable on condition that it is expended currently on the maintenance of the officer's or other rank's family and that the other rank agrees to make a prescribed allotment from his pay for payment with the allowance, when the latter is payable direct to the family as provided in para. 13.

(b) When quarters are allotted to an officer or other rank, whether he has applied for them or not and so long as they remain so allotted, whether occupied or not, a quartering charge and a charge for fuel and light consumed in the quarters will be made at rates and under conditions to be determined by the Army Council. Such charges may be recovered from marriage allowance by deductions or stoppages.

(c) No officer or other rank will be entitled to claim more than one marriage allowance.

(d) Marriage allowance may be withheld from a wife at the discretion of the Army Council if she is convicted of an offence calculated to cause her to be unworthy to receive a grant from public funds.

(e) Marriage allowance may continue in issue, unless the Army Council decide otherwise, while an officer or other rank is under arrest or confinement awaiting trial, or, in the case of an other rank is under detention or in prison without having been discharged from the Army or transferred to the Reserve.

4. Rank governing entitlement.

The rate of marriage allowance for officers and other ranks, and the rate of qualifying allotment for other ranks, will be determined by the rank for which pay is in issue.

5. Motherless children.

(a) Officers and other ranks who are widowers will be entitled to marriage allowance at the full rate if they have two or more children whom they are maintaining. If they have only one eligible child whom they are maintaining marriage allowance will be issuable at half rate.

(b) If the deceased wife had been divorced and her former husband is serving in one of the Armed forces and is receiving marriage allowance in respect of the children as provided in para. 8, the allowance under (a) will be abated to the extent of the allowance in issue to the father of the child or children.

6. Definition of children.

The definition of children for the purpose of marriage allowance is :—

(a) Legitimate or legitimated children and stepchildren of the officer or other rank ;

Digitized by Google

(b) Children statutorily adopted by the officer or other rank and his wife, under the Adoption of Children Act, 1926, the Adoption of Children Act (Northern Ireland), 1929, or the Adoption of Children (Scotland) Act, 1930;

(c) Any children who were in fact being brought up in the household of the officer or other rank at his expense at the time of his wife's death, or at the time of estrangement or divorce where estranged or divorced officers or other ranks claim allowances in respect of their children;

provided that

(i) the children are below school leaving age;

or

(ii) if above school leaving age, they continue to receive full-time education after reaching that age or are prevented from contributing to their own support by an infirmity which arose while they were entitled children.

Children who are being educated at the Duke of York's Royal Military School or the Queen Victoria School will not come within the above definition, except during holiday periods spent at home.

Children sent to an approved school, or committed to the care of a local authority as a fit person under the provisions of the Children and Young Persons Act, 1933, or Children and Young Persons (Scotland) Act, 1937, as a result of a magistrate's order will not qualify.

7. Estrangement.

(a) When an officer or other rank is separated from his wife by a court order, deed or similar legal instrument he will be entitled to marriage allowance in respect of his wife and/or children, to the extent of the amount (if any) provided for their maintenance in the court order, deed or similar instrument less an assumed contribution equal to two-sevenths of his rate of pay in the case of an officer or the appropriate qualifying allotment or equivalent compulsory stoppage in the case of an other rank. The amount of the allowance so issued will not, however, exceed the regulated rate of marriage allowance.

(b) When an officer or other rank is estranged from his wife but there is no court order, deed or similar legal instrument, marriage allowance will be admissible under normal rules except as provided in (c). If marriage allowance is not claimed in respect of the wife it may be paid at the rate appropriate to motherless children in respect of a child or children maintained otherwise than under a court order, deed or similar legal instrument.

(c) In cases where an other rank is required to contribute to the maintenance of his wife and/or children under an award made by the competent military officer under Section 145 (2) (b) of the Army Act marriage allowance will be admissible as in (a).

8. Divorced persons.

Marriage allowance will be admissible in respect of divorced wives and children of divorced officers and other ranks who satisfy the conditions as to age in para. 2, as follows :—

(a) If the divorced officer or other rank has re-married :—

No allowance will be admissible to meet payments to the divorced wife or in respect of her children if marriage allowance is in issue in respect of the present wife. If marriage allowance is not in issue in respect of the present wife an allowance may be issued as in sub-para. (b) below.

(b) If the divorced officer or other rank has not remarried :—

(i) Marriage allowance will be admissible, as for motherless children, in respect of children maintained by the officer or other rank if there is no court order or deed.

(ii) If marriage allowance is not in issue in respect of children as in (i) it may be issued to the extent to which payments are required to be made under a court order or deed or similar legal instrument for the maintenance of the children, and/or the divorced wife if she has not remarried, less an amount equal to two-sevenths of his rate of pay in the case of an officer or the appropriate qualifying allotment or equivalent compulsory stoppage in the case of an other rank, but the amount issued will in no case exceed the normal rate of marriage allowance.

(c) Similar treatment to the above may be applied in cases where a marriage has been annulled.

9. Adjustment in respect of pensions.

(a) When an officer or other rank in receipt of marriage allowance is also in receipt of a pension from public funds in respect of disablement, which includes an element for members of his family, marriage allowance will be abated to the extent of the wife's element in the pension, or to the extent of the eldest child's element if marriage allowance is in issue in respect of motherless children.

(b) When the eldest and/or second child of an officer or other rank who is a widower in receipt of marriage allowance is a stepchild, statutorily adopted child or foster child in receipt of a pension or allowance under the Contributory Pensions Acts, the marriage allowance will be paid in full. When, however, such a child is in receipt of a pension from a Service Department or the Ministry of Pensions consequent on the death of his or her father, the marriage allowance will be abated by the difference between the pension in issue, and an assumed pension under the Contributory Pensions Acts.

10. Cessation of allowance on death of officer or other rank.

The rules contained in Army Orders 33 of 1942 and 135 of 1943 governing cessation of allowances in respect of families on the death of officers and other ranks will apply to marriage allowance until further notice.

11. Cessation of allowance on death of a wife or child.

Marriage allowance may be continued for four weeks from the date of death of a childless wife or the only child of a widower. On the death of the wife leaving only one child in the family, marriage allowance may be continued at the full rate for four weeks from the date of death of the wife, and adjusted thereafter as for a motherless child. Where, however, marriage allowance is in issue under the provisions of paras. 7 and 8 in respect of maintenance under court order, deed or similar instrument the allowance will cease at the date of death.

(a) The rates of marriage allowance are as follows :—

The allowance will cease if and when family allowance under the rules in force on 30th June, 1946, would have been reduced to the rate applicable to a childless wife.

(c) Special rates of marriage allowance less than those in (a) above may be fixed by the Army Council for certain personnel whose families are residing outside the United Kingdom.

(d) In addition to the above, Special Family Allowances equal to the allowances which would have been admissible under the Family Allowances Act, 1945, were they in Great Britain, will be admissible at the discretion of the Army Council, in respect of children in the family of an officer or other rank, while residing at a station abroad in consequence of the officer's or other rank's posting thereto, and during the period of the voyages to and from the station.

13. Method of payment.

Married officers' marriage allowance will be paid direct to the officer, except in time of war when it will be paid to the family on behalf of the officer.

Other ranks' marriage allowance will be paid direct to the soldier when he is living with his family and when separated for short periods, e.g., owing to temporary duty or holidays. When he is separated from his family otherwise than for a short period it will be paid to the family on the soldier's behalf, together with the appropriate qualifying allotment.

Supplementary Marriage Allowance will be paid to the officer's or soldier's account.

The above arrangements may be modified by the Army Council in exceptional circumstances.*

* For special arrangements during the immediate post-war period see para. 12 of the Army Council's Instructions to this Schedule.

14. Qualifying Allotment from pay.

When marriage allowance is payable to an other rank's family in circumstances set out in para. 13 the soldier will be required, as a condition of the issue of the allowance, to agree to a qualifying allotment, according to the following scale, being deducted from his pay and issued with the allowance :—

	s.	d.
Warrant officers	28	0	weekly
Staff-serjeants	24	6	„
Serjeants	17	6	„
Corporals and below	10	6	„

When marriage allowance is paid direct to the guardian of a motherless child at one-half the normal rate, the qualifying allotment will be at one-half the normal rate.

In the event of the soldier expressing the wish to discontinue the payment of qualifying allotment, the qualifying allotment will, nevertheless, continue to be deducted from his pay during such limited period as it may be decided to continue the issue of marriage allowance from army funds.

15. Arrear claims.

If marriage allowance is not claimed by an other rank within one month of the date of fulfilment of the conditions of entitlement, payment of the allowance will begin from the Monday following the date of the claim, except that where it is established to the satisfaction of the regimental paymaster that there was good cause for the delay in claiming the regimental paymaster may authorize arrears of allowance not exceeding 12 months previous to the date of the claim.

16. Indemnification in respect of rent liability.

When, owing to unforeseen circumstances incidental to his military service, an officer or other rank who is living with his family in lodgings at his station and who has not been allotted a quarter is unexpectedly transferred to another station or to public quarters at the same station, so that he necessarily incurs expenses in respect of his lodgings after he and his family have vacated them, the G.O.C. may, on his application allow him relief in respect of such expenses subject to the following conditions :—

(a) The indemnity admissible will in no case exceed 91 days' rent at the rate which would be charged to the officer or other rank if he were allotted a quarter.

Digitized by Google

(b) The expenses which will rank towards such indemnity will be deemed to be :—

in the case of rented lodging :—

(i) rent paid to the landlord ;

(ii) any lump-sum payment in consideration of premature release from rent liability ;

(iii) the cost of effecting a sub-lease ;

in the case of a house belonging to the applicant :—

its rental value for the period during which it remained vacant and not let calculated on its gross assessment for income tax under Schedule A. No other expenses will rank in this case.

(c) No claim will be admitted where the officer or other rank has been transferred to another station if the family remain at the old station after accommodation became available at the new station, and the applicant must satisfy the G.O.C. that the liability in respect of which he seeks relief has been unavoidably incurred and that all reasonable steps were taken to terminate the liability as economically as possible.

(d) No claim will be entertained in respect of lodgings occupied by the family of an officer or other rank which were not also occupied by him at his permanent duty station at the date of his transfer to another station, or the date of the allotment of a quarter at his original station.

(e) All claims will be duly supported by receipts, certificates or other appropriate evidence.

(f) Unless specially authorized by the Army Council, no claim for indemnity from army funds will be entertained in respect of any lodgings vacated by an officer proceeding to take up an appointment under a colonial government, or with the local forces of a colony, protectorate, mandated territory or condominium or in connection with any other appointment not remunerated from army funds.

PART II

EXCEPTIONS TO THE APPLICATION OF THE PROVISIONS IN PART I

1. Unless specifically authorized by the Army Council by separate instructions, the provisions of Part I will not apply to officers and other ranks serving in locally raised colonial units or colonial cadres of British units, unless seconded from units or corps the depots of which are in the United Kingdom.

2. Officers and other ranks who begin their terminal leave or release leave on or before 1st July, 1946, will continue to receive allowances to which they were entitled in respect of their families under the regulations in force immediately before that date.

3. (a) Officers and other ranks, who would otherwise suffer a reduction in the allowance in respect of their families on the introduction of marriage allowance on 1st July, 1946, as provided in Part I of this Schedule, may continue to receive allowances in respect of their families under the regulations in force immediately before that date in the following circumstances :—

(b) Officers on the British pay code on 30th June, 1946.

(i) Where an allowance including a specific addition for children (Category C) was in issue in respect of an officer's family on 30th June, 1946, at a rate higher than the rate payable under the provisions of Part I of the Schedule, the former allowance may continue to be issued under the rules in force on 30th June, 1946, so long as this is favourable to the officer but not beyond 31st March, 1947, except that no adjustment will be made in respect of the birth of a child, except a child for whom pre-natal allowance was admissible before 1st July, 1946.

(ii) Family lodging allowance will not be continued after 30th June, 1946, at the special rates authorized in Army Order 33 of 1942, Part II, para. 2, of the Schedule, nor will the supplementary allowance of 2*s.* a day, authorized in Army Order 171 of 1944 to officers in Category C be continued after that date. Officers in receipt of the special rates or the supplementary allowance on 30th June, 1946, may receive allowances at the standard rates in force on that date under the rules then applicable, as provided in (a) above if more favourable to them than marriage allowance as provided in Part I, Section D.

(c) Other ranks on the British pay code on 30th June, 1946.

Where the sum of family allowance (including London allowance authorized in Army Order 3 of 1940, and/or pre-natal allowance, if in issue) and qualifying allotment, in issue on 30th June, 1946, is higher than the sum of marriage allowance and qualifying allotment admissible under the provisions of Part I of this Schedule, payment of the total amount in issue to the family on 30th June, 1946, may be continued (although the rate of qualifying allotment will be adjusted to the rate in Part I, Section D, of this Schedule, and a corresponding reduction in the rate of family allowance paid from public funds will be made). The amount of the payment so continued will be subject to reduction in accordance with the rules applicable on 30th June, 1946, if and when the soldier is reduced in rank, when any member of the family ceases to qualify, and when a family in receipt of London allowance leaves London. It will not be increased except when, having been reduced in consequence of a reduction in rank, the former rank is restored within 61 days.

(d) Officers and Other Ranks on the Indian pay code on 30th June, 1946.

(i) Provision is made in separate instructions for payment of a war excess in certain circumstances to officers and other ranks who were on the Indian pay code on 30th June, 1946, so long as they remain in an area where that pay code applied on 30th June, 1946.

(ii) In cases where officers and other ranks, had they been in receipt of allowances at British rates on 30th June, 1946, would have continued to receive allowances in respect of their families under the rules applicable on that date under the provisions of sub-paras. (b) or (c) above, such allowance will be calculated and will become issuable, subject to subsequent adjustments as provided in sub-paras. (b) (i) and (c), in the event of their leaving the Indian establishment or the area where the Indian pay code applied on 30th June, 1946.

Digitized by Google

(e) Officers and other ranks who are temporarily not in receipt of full pay and allowances from Army funds on or after 30th June, 1946, e.g., while on half pay, while on compassionate leave or agricultural leave, or while in receipt of Colonial or Sudan Government rates of pay and allowances may, when they again receive full Army pay and allowances receive the benefits in sub-paras. (b) and (c) on the basis of the allowance to which they would have been entitled had they been on full pay and allowances from Army funds throughout.

(f) Officers and other ranks who were not in receipt of pay and allowances from Army funds on 30th June, 1946, having been released for specific periods or having been granted indefinite release may, when compulsorily recalled on or after 1st July, 1946, receive the benefits in sub-paras. (b) and (c) as provided in (e) above.

(g) Ex-regulars who were granted emergency commissions and who re-enlist in the ranks after 30th June, 1946, in order to complete their regular engagements may, provided that they signified their intention to re-enlist before the termination of commissioned service, and in fact re-enlisted within 31 days of such termination, receive the benefits in sub-paras. (b) and (c) on the basis of the allowance to which they would have been entitled had they been serving on 30th June, 1946, in the rank in which they re-enlist.

(h) Officers and other ranks who are widowers and who continue to receive allowances in respect of their children after 30th June, 1946, as provided in sub-paras. (b) and (c) will, if they remarry, cease to receive such allowances and will receive allowances as provided in Part I, Section D, of this schedule from the date of marriage.

(j) When an allowance ceases to be issued under the provisions of sub-paras. (b) or (c) in consequence of marriage allowance as authorized in Part I, Section D, of this Schedule becoming more favourable, it will not be permissible to revert to the former arrangements.

(k) (i) Officers and other ranks who were not in receipt of pay and allowances on 30th June, 1946, because they were absent without leave may, when they again receive pay and allowances, unless convicted of desertion, receive the benefits of sub-paras. (b) and (c) on the basis of the allowances to which they would have been entitled had they been on full pay and allowances throughout.

(ii) Other ranks who are convicted of desertion after 30th June, 1946, may, if they were apprehended before that date, receive benefits as in (i), but if apprehended after 30th June, 1946, marriage allowance will be resumed at the rate in Part I, Section D, of this Schedule.

4. (a) Where a supplementary allowance is in issue under Army Order 196 of 1941 (Section C of the Schedule) in addition to family allowance on 30th June, 1946, and the sum of these allowances, together with London allowance authorized in Army Order 3 of 1940 and/or pre-natal allowance, if in issue, exceeds the sum of marriage allowance and qualifying allotment provided in Part I, Section D, of this Schedule, the total payment in issue on 30th June, 1946, may continue in place of the latter, so long as the total amount payable to the dependants as a whole is more favourable, subject to the contribution of the soldier by way of qualifying allotment being adjusted to the appropriate rate in Part I, Section D, of this Schedule and any consequent adjustment in the stoppage from pay. The rate of family allowance continued under this arrangement will be adjusted as occasion arises as in para. 3(c) above, and adjustment will be made in respect of any subsequent reduction in the amount payable under the court order, deed or similar instrument. The total amount payable to dependants of the soldier as a whole on 30th June, 1946, will in no circumstances be increased subsequently.

(b) Similar arrangements to those in sub-para. (a) will apply in cases where special dependants' allowance, qualifying allotment and a supplementary allowance are in issue on 30th June, 1946, under the provisions of Army Order 196 of 1941 to a total in excess of marriage allowance provided in Part I, Section D of this Schedule.

5. With reference to Part I, Section B, para. 3(d) of this Schedule, the provisions of Army Order 118 of 1942 under which lodging allowance may continue in issue to other ranks during all periods of authorized leave provided that lodgings are retained and paid for, will continue to apply until further notice.

PART III

SERVICE GRANTS

1. Officers below the rank of captain holding regular commissions who are under the age of 25 years and are married and have children, but owing to their age are ineligible for marriage allowance, may receive service grants sufficient to raise the income of the family to a total of 63*s.* 0*d.* a week after allowing for a presumed contribution from the officer's pay towards the maintenance of their families at the following rates :—

Lieutenant ...	...	52*s.* 6*d.* a week
Second-lieutenant ...		42*s.* 0*d.* ,,

2. Soldiers below the rank of serjeant serving on regular or short service engagements who are under the age of 21 years and are married and have children, but owing to their age are ineligible for marriage allowance, may receive service grants sufficient to raise the family income to a total of 42*s.* 0*d.* a week, provided that the soldier agrees to a contribution at the following rates being deducted from his pay and paid to his family during periods of separation :—

Corporal ...	...	...	28*s.* 0*d.* a week.
Lance-corporal or private			21*s.* 0*d.* ,,

3. Service grants will not be paid in respect of a childless wife.

4. Service grants will not be admissible for officers and other ranks who are in receipt of lodging allowance, unless they are separated by the exigencies of the service or for reasons referred to in Part I, Section B, para. 2. Lance-corporals and privates who are separated otherwise than in circumstances referred to above may, however, receive the amount by which an otherwise admissible service grant would exceed lodging allowance in issue.

PART IV

CANCELLATION OR MODIFICATION OF REGULATIONS

1. In consequence of the promulgation of the rules in Part I of this Schedule, the regulations in force immediately before 1st July, 1946, will be cancelled or modified with effect from 1st July, 1946, so far as military personnel are concerned, as provided below :—

2. The following paragraphs in Allowance Regulations, 1944, will be cancelled :—

3. The following Army Orders will be cancelled :—

49 of 1942	171 of 1944
59 of 1943	95 of 1945
194 of 1943	151 of 1945

4. Army Orders 33 of 1942 (as amended) and 135 of 1943 (as amended) will cease to have effect except insofar as the instructions contained therein apply to Maltese personnel or are necessary to apply the provisions of Part I, Section D, para. 10 and Part II of this Schedule.

Army Council's Instructions to Part I

General

1. The regulations promulgated by this Warrant make considerable alteration in the basis of the allowances issued to unmarried personnel and married personnel separated from their families, to enable them to obtain accommodation and food when provision is not made in kind. Hitherto the allowances issued for this purpose have included ration, lodging, fuel and light allowances and, in the case of officers, servant allowance. Provision is made in this Warrant for a lodging allowance which with ration allowance, local overseas allowance (where applicable), and, in the case of officers, their usual messing contribution, is considered sufficient to enable officers or other ranks to obtain board and lodgings.

2. Marriage allowance is a supplement to the provision the officer or other rank makes from his pay for the maintenance of his family, including provision of accommodation, furniture, fuel and light and service.

3. In consequence of the revision in the basis of lodging and marriage allowances and the introduction of the new rates, the married rates of lodging allowance, family lodging allowance, fuel and light, and servant allowances will no longer be issued.

4. Furniture allowances will no longer be issued except to unmarried officers and married officers separated from their families, who are allotted unfurnished quarters.

5. Mess hire allowance is abolished. Where it is necessary to hire temporary accommodation for a mess, public arrangements will be made.

6. Generally, rations will not be issued in kind except to messes, and officers and other ranks who cannot be provided with accommodation will not be fed in mess but will receive ration allowances and make their own arrangements for accommodation and food.

Section B

7. The issue of lodging allowance for accommodation at a temporary duty station will be subject to a certificate by the officer or other rank that he has not, while on temporary duty, continued to reside in the quarters or lodgings at his permanent station, or, if in receipt of marriage allowance, has not resided with his family.

8. In cases where a married officer or other rank, on the recommendation of the appropriate military medical authority, spends sick leave or furlough at a place other than that at which his family is residing, lodging allowance may be issued for the period of separation, subject to a certificate from the appropriate military medical authority.

9. The arrangement referred to in the footnote to Section B, para. 2, will continue until 1st January, 1947, after which the rules in that paragraph will apply. Steps will, therefore, be taken to review all cases in which married officers are receiving lodging allowance while separated from their families, to ensure that the allowance is discontinued on 31st December, 1946, where there is no longer entitlement thereto under the regulations.

Section D

10. Initial claims to marriage allowance will be made on A.F. O 1646 for officers, and A.F. O 1700-2 for other ranks, and will be supported by a certified copy of the individual's marriage certificate. Other ranks will be required to produce their birth certificates, or where this is not available, independent evidence of date of birth. Officers will be required to produce their birth certificates where date of birth cannot be verified from official records. Claims for marriage allowance at the rates applicable to motherless children will be supported by the birth certificates of the children.

11. Marriage allowance is not issuable during absence without leave, and will cease to be issued as soon as possible after notification of such absence reaches the paymaster. Any overissue of marriage allowance will be recovered through the officer's or other rank's pay account. Where, in the case of an other rank, the Court of Inquiry assembled under Section 72(1) of the Army Act makes no declaration, the issue of allowances will be dealt with as in a " missing " case as provided in Army Order 25 of 1946.

12. The Schedule to the Warrant provides for the payment of marriage allowance to the officer except in time of war. A.C.I. 738 of 1943, as amended, provides for payment of family lodging allowance to officers' wives in certain circumstances and the provisions of this A.C.I. will continue to apply to marriage allowance, as a temporary measure, pending further instructions. Similarly, the existing arrangements for payment of family allowance to the wives of other ranks will apply to marriage allowance pending further instructions.

13. The issue of marriage allowance, if otherwise admissible, will continue while families are on board ship, but officers and other ranks will be required to pay for messing of their families at rates which will be notified in separate instructions.

14. The upper limit of the compulsory school age is 14 years before 1st April, 1947, and 15 years from that date.

15. In any special case where it is considered necessary, an officer or other rank may be called upon by his C.O. or the paymaster to explain the nature and extent of the provision which he makes or has made for his family in respect of whom marriage allowance is or has been in issue.

16. Subsequent to the rendering of an initial claim for marriage allowance officers and other ranks must notify their C.O. immediately of any changes in their families which affect their entitlement to marriage allowance. The following are examples, not necessarily exhaustive, of casualties which must be reported immediately :—

Death of wife and date thereof.

Death of motherless child and date thereof.

The existence of any court order, deed, etc., requiring an officer or other rank to maintain his family (particulars should be given).

Divorce (including date and nature of decree-nisi or absolute—and particulars of Court Order, etc.).

Cessation of financial provision for family.

Re-marriage of divorced wife (with particulars of name, rank, etc., if to a member of the Forces) in cases where marriage allowance is in issue in respect of the divorced wife or children in her custody.

17. Applications for the continuance of a marriage allowance in respect of children continuing full-time education will be submitted to the paymaster together with a supporting statement from the school or educational establishment which the children are attending. Applications for the continuance of the allowance in respect of incapacitated children will be submitted through the usual channels to the War Office, accompanied by a medical certificate.

Digitized by Google

18. Where marriage allowance is issuable in respect of the motherless child or children of an other rank, such allowance may be paid to the guardian of the child or children when they are separated from the soldier. For this purpose soldiers will be required to notify their C.O. of the name and address of the guardian to whom they wish the allowance to be paid.

19. In cases where family lodging allowance or the married rates of allowances are in issue to an officer on 30th June, 1946, after the death of his childless wife or only child, such allowances may continue in issue until the expiration of 91 days from the date of death or until 28th July, 1946, whichever is the earlier.

Army Council's Instructions to Part II

1. Officers whose families were in occupation of quarters on 30th June, 1946, but who would otherwise have been in receipt of an allowance in respect of their families which would have been continued after that date under the conditions of Part II, para. 3(b) of the Schedule may receive the allowance under these conditions after 30th June, 1946, subject to payment of the appropriate rent for the quarter.

2. Consequent on the passing of the Family Allowance Act, 1945, with effect from 6th August, 1946, the assumed Contributory Pension Act Allowance which is taken into account in assessing the amount of family allowance for which an other rank is eligible under the provisions of Part I, Section D, para. 9 of the Schedule or of Army Order 135 of 1943, para. 17, will cease to be taken into account in respect of the second and subsequent children from that date.

Army Council's Instructions to Part III

1. Provision is made in Part I, Section D, para. 2 of the Schedule for officers and other ranks who were in receipt of marriage allowance on 30th June, 1946, to continue to receive marriage allowance irrespective of age. The service grants are intended for regular officers and other ranks who marry after 30th June, 1946, before reaching the ages of 25 or 21 years, respectively, or who are married on entering the service after that date.

2. Service grants will be paid to the husband or wife as provided in Part I, Section D, para. 14 of the Schedule.

3. Officers and other ranks serving on wartime engagements will continue to be eligible for War Service Grants temporarily until further notice.

Army Council's Instructions to Part IV

The cancellation and modification of regulations and Army Orders do not affect women commissioned for employment in the Royal Army Medical Corps or the Army Dental Corps or officers and auxiliaries of the Auxiliary Territorial Service, whose allowances will continue to be dealt with, in the absence of further instructions, under the regulations applicable on 30th June, 1946, as indicated in Army Orders 231 and 232 of 1943 or the Regulations for the Auxiliary Territorial Service, 1945.

(b) For officers, soldiers and others when fully subsisted on board ship at the public expense.

(c) For officers in receipt of a sanatorium grant.

(d) For officers, soldiers and others when billeted with subsistence, except that those who are billeted with partial subsistence may be granted such allowance as the Army Council may determine.

4. Absentees.—When a soldier is absent without leave for 24 hours or more, he will, in general, forfeit his entitlement to one day's rations for every period of 24 hours, or part of such period that he is absent. Where, however, he would be rationed in kind on the first day of forfeiture if he were present, rations drawn for him on that day will be allowed ; this proviso does not make him entitled to a money allowance in lieu of rations.

5. Soldiers on release from detention, etc.—A soldier on the day of his release from a military detention barracks or prison may receive a ration or the allowance in lieu, unless he is not released until the afternoon ; if sent from abroad as a soldier under sentence for discharge in England, he may be rationed until he is discharged.

II.—SCALES OF RATIONS

6. The period covered by the ration will be midnight to midnight.

7. The term " ration " where used in these regulations means the ration approved for the station, unless otherwise stated.

8. Where reference is made in these regulations to the scales of rations promulgated in other publications (e.g., the pamphlet " Home Service Ration Scales ", Local allowance regulations, or Command orders) such scales will be regarded as granted under these regulations for the purposes of Regulations for the Allowances of the Army, 1944, Sec. I, para. 11.

Surcharges made for overissues will not be accounted for by replacing the articles in kind, but by the payment of their value. When rations overdrawn in error are adjusted by payment at contract rates, departmental expenses will not be recovered.

9. Home stations.—The scales of rations at home stations are published in the pamphlet " Home Service Ration Scales ".

10. Stations abroad.—The ration scales for each station abroad will be submitted for the approval of the Army Council. The scales when approved will be laid down in the Local allowance regulations or Command orders of the command.

11. Meat losses in cutting up.—When meat is supplied in bulk, the following allowances on the regulated issues for each accounting unit may be made and charged in the accounts to cover losses in cutting up :—

Issues	under	50-lb.		...	...	...	Nil.
,,	of 50	and	under	100-lb.	...	...	½-lb.
,,	,, 100	,,	,,	150-lb.	...	...	1-lb.
,,	,, 150	,,	,,	200-lb.	...	...	1½-lb.

12. Special issues.—The G.O.C.-in-C. may sanction special issues of provisions for instructional purposes to army medical laboratories and schools of cookery, and to hospitals where cooking classes are held.

13. Additions to the ration scales.—Additions to the authorized ration scales may be sanctioned by the G.O.C.-in-C. on very exceptional occasions, such as when the troops are only able to obtain their meals at irregular and inconvenient hours, owing (a) to unexpected delay in the hour of embarkation, (b) to the exigencies of the Service at manœuvres or summer drills, or (c) to their being employed on unusually onerous and prolonged duty. The authority for the additional issues will be attached as a voucher to the account.

No other change in the scales will be made, nor will additional issues of foodstuffs subject to national rationing in the United Kingdom be authorized, without the sanction of the Army Council.

14. Spirit, cocoa or tea ration.—On very exceptional occasions, a free ration of 1-oz. (Fl.) (1/20-pint) of rum or 1-pint of cocoa or tea may, if available, be issued under the authority of the divisional commander when certified by the senior medical officer to be necessary for safeguarding the health of the troops.

The scale of ingredients for 1 pint of cocoa and tea, when issued under the authority of this paragraph, will be cocoa ¼-oz. or tea ⅛-oz., milk, fresh, 2-oz., or milk, tinned, ⅖-oz. and sugar ½-oz.

Digitized by Google

15. Field ration.—In case of active operations in the field a special scale of rations, dependent on the climate and the circumstances of the expedition, will be fixed by the G.O.C.-in-C., and reported to the War Office.

III.—DIETS IN MILITARY DETENTION BARRACKS AND PRISONS, AND BARRACK DETENTION ROOMS

16. Home stations.—The scale of diets for soldiers confined in military detention barracks, prisons, or barrack detention rooms, at home stations, are published in the pamphlet " Home Service Ration Scales ".

17. Stations abroad.—At stations abroad the scales of diets are included in the Local allowance regulations or Command orders of the command.

18. Ill-conducted soldiers.—The scales for ill-conducted and idle soldiers under sentence, and the regulations governing them, are detailed in the Rules for Military Detention Barracks and Military Prisons.

PRISONERS IN CIVIL GAOLS

19. Subsistence.—When any soldier is in a civil gaol in the United Kingdom, either as a prisoner or awaiting trial for a civil or a military offence, or as a deserter, no charge on account of his subsistence will be admissible in army accounts. The rate to be paid for prisoners in colonial prisons will be such as the G.O.C.-in-C. may order, such rate being included in the Local allowance regulations or Command orders of the command. Charges should appear in the accounts of the unit to which the soldier belongs.

IV.—HOSPITAL DIETS

20. The scales of diets for patients in military hospitals at home and at stations abroad are published in the pamphlet " Military Hospital Dietary ".

V.—ISSUES ON REPAYMENT

21. Rations on repayment.—Personnel in receipt of ration allowance will not normally be permitted to obtain rations on repayment. In special circumstances the issue of rations on repayment may be authorized by the G.O.C.-in-C. for persons not ordinarily entitled to receive them. When such authority has been given, the charge for rations so provided will be as follows :—

(a) rations supplied as cooked meals—the current rate of ration allowance ;

(b) rations supplied uncooked—the current rate of ration allowance less 1*s.* 0*d.*

At stations abroad where a rate of ration allowance is not assessed locally, the charges will be related to the United Kingdom rate of ration allowance.

Where casual meals are supplied, recovery will be effected at the following fractions of the daily rate referred to at (a) above :—

Breakfast	One third
Lunch or dinner	One third
Tea	One sixth
Supper	One sixth

The O.C. the unit concerned will be responsible for collecting the amount due, charges for occasional meals being recovered at the time such meals are served. The amounts so collected will be credited to the public in the unit's imprest account supported by a statement showing particulars of the individuals for whom rations or casual meals were supplied.

Exceptionally, where Army Council authority has been obtained for the issue of rations on repayment to cadets of the Junior Training Corps, the Army Cadet Force and enlisted Royal Army Service Corps (Expeditionary Force Institute) personnel, the charges to be raised will be determined by the Army Council from time to time. Similarly where rations are issued on repayment to military families residing at stations abroad, the charges will be on the basis set out in (a) or (b) above.

22. At stations abroad rations may be issued on repayment to Queen's Army Schoolmistresses and pupil teachers. The issues will not exceed one ration (excepting any commuted portion) daily for each person and the proportion of the various items of the scale in use will be strictly adhered to. Charges for such issues will be assessed in accordance with Regulations for the Allowances of the Army, 1944, Sec. 1, para. 19.

VI.—ICE FOR THE PRESERVATION OF FOOD AND COOLING OF DRINKING WATER

23. At certain stations abroad, ice may be issued free when necessary for the preservation of food, and also, in specially authorized cases, for the cooling of drinking water. The stations at which ice will be issued free and the conditions governing such issue will be determined subject to the approval of the Army Council and, when approved, will be laid down in the Local allowance regulations or Command orders.

24. The free issue of ice for the preservation of food is limited to married families, to serjeants' and men's messes, and to Queen's Army Schoolmistresses (unless married to and living with an officer or soldier) ; the provision of ice for officers and nursing officers of the Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service is covered by their Colonial Allowance. Issues of ice to officers and nursing officers of the Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service may, however, be made on repayment. The cost, including charges under Regulations for the Allowances of the Army, 1944, Sec. 1, para. 19 will be recovered by Os.C. units, and remitted to the Command Paymaster, who will be furnished by the officer i/c supplies with a statement of the sums due.

25. Where the issue of ice to entitled personnel is impracticable, a cash allowance equal to the retail cost of the authorized scale issue may be allowed. The cash allowance issuable in lieu of ice to entitled personnel who certify that a privately owned refrigerator is used by them will be equal to the army cost only (i.e. wholesale price) of the authorized scale issue.

26. Ice, or cash allowance in lieu, will not be admissible for entitled personnel on leave, except for any period of leave at the duty station.

27. Issue of ice required for cooling drinking water, will be limited to serjeants' messes and non-commissioned officers' and men's dining rooms and will in no case be made where mechanical water-coolers are provided.

SECTION II

Reckoning of Service and Classification

Reckonable Man's Service

6. " Reckonable Man's Service " counting towards the increases of pay referred to in para. 3(a) will be service rendered as a man with the Colours on the current engagement after attaining the age of 17½ years (the basis of which will be the official army age), together with any reckonable former service as defined in para. 7, except that the following periods will not be permitted to reckon :—

(a) Any continuous period exceeding 28 days during which pay has been forfeited.*

(b) In the case of an engagement governed by the provisions of Section 79(2)† of the Army Act, any period of service forfeited by reason of desertion or fraudulent enlistment, unless restored in accordance with King's Regulations.

(c) In the case of an engagement which is not governed by the provisions of Section 79(2)† of the Army Act, any service rendered on an engagement before the date of conviction or of dispensation with trial in respect of desertion or fraudulent enlistment, unless specially allowed to reckon by the Army Council.

Reckonable Former Service

7. (a) Former Colour Service as a man, for a period in excess of three months, in any of the following categories will, if acknowledged on enlistment or re-enlistment and duly confirmed, count as reckonable man's service for the increases of pay provided in para. 3(a), subject to the exceptions specified in para. 8 below.

(i) In the Royal Navy, the Army, the Royal Marines or the Royal Air Force.

(ii) Full time paid service in a dominion or colonial corps or in the Royal Jersey Militia.

(iii) In the mobilized or embodied Militia, Supplementary Reserve or Territorial Army.

Former service of less than three months will not be reckonable, unless terminated by discharge for the purpose of immediate re-enlistment.

(b) Former service as a commissioned officer which would normally be allowed to reckon as qualifying service for officers' increments of pay under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Articles 431 to 433 and 439,

* See para. 8 of the Army Council's instructions to this Warrant.

† Section 79(2) of the Army Act does not apply to a soldier of the Territorial Army who joined the Colours on embodiment, or who voluntarily enlisted for the duration of the war, or to a man of the Army class who has been called up under the National Service (Armed Forces) Act, 1939.

will, if acknowledged on enlistment or re-enlistment, count as reckonable man's service, subject to the exceptions specified in para. 8 below.

(c) In the case of an engagement entered into before 1st July, 1946, any former service which is still reckonable on 30th June, 1946, under the provisions of the Pay Warrant, 1940, or Army Order 14 of 1943, may continue to reckon during the currency of that engagement (including any re-engagement), notwithstanding that the whole or part of such former service may not be reckonable under the provisions of sub-para. (a) above.

Former Service not reckonable

8. The following periods of former service will not count as reckonable man's service :—

(a) Former service which terminated while the soldier was declared to be in a state of desertion, but in respect of which he has neither been tried by court-martial nor had his trial dispensed with under the provisions of King's Regulations, 1940, para. 266.

(b) Service terminated by discharge in the following circumstances :—
(i) With ignominy.
(ii) On conviction by the civil power.
(iii) For misconduct.
(iv) Services no longer required owing to misconduct.

(c) Former service as a commissioned officer which was terminated for misconduct.

The Army Council may, in deserving cases, allow former service which was unacknowledged on re-enlistment, or is not reckonable under sub-paras. (a), (b) and (c) above, to count as reckonable man's service if otherwise admissible under para. 7 above.*

Service in the rank†

9. " Service in the rank " counting towards the increases of pay mentioned in para. 3 will be any period of reckonable man's service, as defined in paras. 6 to 8 above, during which the warrant or non-commissioned officer has held the same or a higher paid rank or appointment, including their equivalents in the Royal Navy, the Royal Marines or the Royal Air Force, except that :—

(a) A soldier who is reduced in rank for disciplinary reasons by order of a court martial or other competent authority will not be allowed to reckon previous service in any higher rank than that to which he is reduced.

* See para. 9 of the Army Council's instructions to this Warrant.

† The provisions of this para. are liable to alteration when the wartime promotion code is reviewed.

Digitized by Google

(b) A soldier who forfeits seniority in his rank by order of a court martial or other competent authority will not be allowed to reckon any service in that rank before the date of his new seniority.

Pay date for increases

10. Increases of pay under para. 3(a) for reckonable man's service will be governed by a "pay date". A soldier's pay date will, except as stated below, be the date on which he last joined or rejoined for service with the Colours, or the date of attaining the age of 17½ years (if later). This pay date will be modified, where necessary, as follows :—

(a) When a soldier has any period of service, subsequent to his pay date, as determined above, which is not reckonable (see para. 6) the pay date will be post-dated by the amount of such service.

(b) When a soldier has previous reckonable man's service on his current engagement (as defined in para. 6) or former reckonable man's service (as defined in para. 7), his pay date will be ante-dated by the amount of such service.

11. Increases of pay under para. 3(b) for length of service as a warrant or non-commissioned officer will similarly be governed by a "pay date". This pay date will be the date of promotion to the paid rank, except that it will be :—

(a) post-dated, where necessary, in accordance with paras. 9 (a) and (b), or

(b) ante-dated in respect of any former service in the same or a higher paid rank which is reckonable under para. 9.

Classification for Pay

12. With effect from 1st July, 1946, all soldiers below the rank of serjeant or its equivalent will be classified for pay in four categories, according to their qualifications and experience as under :—

Recruit.
One Star.
Two Star.
Three Star.

The qualifications required for classification as a One Star, Two Star or Three Star soldier will be prescribed by the Army Council.*

Soldiers of the rank of serjeant and above who, on 30th June, 1946, are mustered as tradesmen with a Class I classification in a Group A trade, or who qualify thereafter in Class I of a corps trade belonging to Group A, and armament artificers, will be classified for pay as Highest Skilled Tradesmen.

* See para. 10 of the Army Council's instructions to this Warrant.

SECTION III

Pay on Joining, etc.

Pay on enlistment or on attaining the age of 17½ years

13. On enlistment at the age of 17½ years or over, a soldier will be paid the minimum rate of pay provided in para. 2, Table B. A boy will be paid at the minimum rate laid down in para. 2, Table B, from the date of attaining the age of 17½ years.

Pay on re-enlistment

14. Except as provided below, a soldier who re-enlists will be paid at the minimum rate laid down in para. 2, Table B, pending confirmation of the previous service acknowledged on re-enlistment. When any such former service has been allowed to count, he will be eligible for re-classification and to receive increments under para. 3 appropriate to his total period of reckonable man's service with effect from the date of re-enlistment.

A soldier paid under para. 2, Table B, who is discharged for immediate re-enlistment will retain the classification he held on discharge.

Pay on conviction of desertion or fraudulent enlistment.

15. A soldier who is convicted of desertion or fraudulent enlistment, or whose trial on either of these charges has been dispensed with, will have his pay reduced to the minimum rate laid down in para. 2, Table B, from the date of his conviction or dispensation with trial. If any previous service is still reckonable under the conditions of para. 7, he may receive the appropriate increments under para. 3. Such a soldier will not be reclassified into a Star grade until he has completed a further minimum period of six months' satisfactory service.

Recall from the Reserve.

16. On rejoining the Colours from the Reserve, a soldier below the rank of serjeant, or its equivalent, will be paid according to the classification he held at the date of his transfer to the Reserve and the rank in which he rejoins, but will be re-tested (to include trade testing in the case of a tradesman who has been absent from the Colours over six months) and will be liable to re-classification if he fails to attain the required standards.

A soldier of or above the rank of serjeant who was classified as a " Highest Skilled Tradesman " will retain this classification on rejoining the Colours from the Reserve but will undergo a standard trade test as soon as possible, if he has been absent from the Colours for more than six months. In the event of his failure to obtain the required classification, as laid down in para. 12, the soldier will be paid under para. 2, Table A, col. 3, from the concluding date of the test.

A soldier rejoining from the Reserve who has not previously been classified under this Warrant will be classified in accordance with the rules laid down by the Army Council, but see para. 18 regarding the application of the " War Excess " rules in the case of those rejoining the Colours after being released for a specified period or who are compulsorily recalled from indefinite release.

Pay on reversion to the ranks.

17. (a) A soldier of the rank of serjeant or above who is reduced or reverts to a rank below that of serjeant will be classified for pay under para. 2, Table B, from the date of such reduction or reversion, according to the standard laid down.

(b) A soldier below the rank of serjeant who is reduced or reverts to the rank of private will be dealt with as follows :—

(i) If reduced in rank or deprived of a lance-appointment for misconduct or inefficiency, he will be re-classified as in sub-para. (a) above.

(ii) If he reverts or relinquishes a lance-appointment on grounds other than those in (i) above, he will retain the classification held in the higher rank or appointment.

SECTION IV

War Excesses

18. The following rules will apply to :—

(a) Soldiers serving with the Colours on 30th June, 1946,* and continuing to serve after that date.

(b) Soldiers who have been released for a specified period or have been granted indefinite release before 1st July, 1946, but are compulsorily recalled on or after that date.

(c) Ex-regular soldiers granted emergency commissions who re-enlist in the ranks after 30th June, 1946, in order to complete their regular engagements, provided that they signify their intention to re-enlist before reversion to unemployment on release and in fact re-enlist within 31 days of such reversion ; these will be treated as though on pay as soldiers on 30th June, 1946, in the rank in which they are re-instated.

Calculation of War Excesses

19. (a) Where a soldier, on 30th June, 1946, is entitled to a rate of pay, including war service increments, and such additions to pay as are defined in para. 20 below, which in the aggregate are in excess of the rate of pay authorized by this Warrant, the difference will be regarded as a war excess which will be paid in addition to the new rates of pay.

(b) Married soldiers whose families continue, after 30th June, 1946, to receive payment equal to the total amount of family allowance and qualifying allotment in issue on that date, under the provisions of Army Order 94 of 1946, Part II, para. 3, of the Schedule, may receive, as a war excess, in addition to the new rates of pay, the amount (if any) by which the increase in their qualifying allotment exceeds the increase in their pay on 1st July, 1946. If their pay on 1st July, 1946, under Section I of this Warrant is not more favourable than that in issue on 30th June, 1946, the increase in qualifying allotment will be added to their pay as a war excess, in addition to any war excess admissible under (a) above. Similar arrangements will apply to Special Dependants' Allowance.

(c) The war excess under (a) and (b) above will be subject to adjustment in accordance with the conditions set out in paras. 21 to 25 below.

20. For the purpose of determining a war excess, the following will rank as additions to pay :—

Long Service and Good Conduct Pay.

Extra Pay of the Military Provost Staff Corps (other than the additions authorized in Army Order 76 of 1946), the Corps of Military Police, and Field Security personnel of the Intelligence Corps.

Additional Pay, except (a) additional pay of a casual nature*, and (b) additional pay of a type for which provision is made under this Warrant.

Any form of additional pay for which provision is also made under this Warrant, except diving pay at time rates, may, however, be included for the purposes of determining a war excess, if the soldier so elects. In that event, the rate of additional pay admissible on 1st July, 1946, will be reckoned, together with the new rate of pay under this Warrant, to arrive at the war excess. The election will be made in writing before 1st October, 1946, and will be effective from 1st July, 1946; once made, it will be final.

* See para. 12 of the Army Council's instructions to this Warrant.

Subsequent abatement of War Excess

21. When the rate of pay admissible under this Warrant is increased by reason of increments of pay for length of service (including length of service in the rank), re-classification or promotion, the war excess will be abated by the amount of such increase or by such smaller amount as will extinguish it completely. The war excess will also be abated by the amount of any extra pay or additional pay at a rate above 6*d.* included therein when the soldier relinquishes or ceases to perform the duties for which it was granted or on 1st July, 1949, whichever is the earlier. A soldier who is demustered or remustered on or before 30th June, 1946, and retains his former tradesmen's rates of pay for a period of six or twelve months under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 840A, will have his war excess re-assessed at the end of such period as though he had reverted to non-tradesmen's rates, or to the tradesmen's rate appropriate to his new trade, on or before 30th June, 1946.

Assessment or Re-assessment of War Excesses on or after 1st July, 1946

22. When a soldier reverts or is reduced on or after 1st July, 1946, to a lower paid rank than that held on 30th June, 1946, the war excess will be assessed or re-assessed on the basis of whichever is the more favourable of the following alternatives:—

(a) As though the lower rank had been held on 30th June, 1946, or

(b) By continuance of the war excess at the amount at which it stood immediately before reversion or reduction.

Where a soldier reverts or is reduced on 1st July, 1946, the war excess may be assessed on the basis of the higher rank.

The war excess so assessed or re-assessed will be subject to abatement under the rules in para. 21.

23. Notwithstanding the rule in para. 21 above, where a soldier has reverted or been reduced to a lower paid rank and is promoted to paid rank after 30th June, 1946, and within 61 days of such reversion or reduction, his war excess will be re-assessed from the date of promotion at the amount that would have been issuable had he not so reverted or been reduced (except that the intervening service in the lower rank will not reckon towards increments in the higher rank).

24. Where a soldier is promoted after 30th June, 1946, and subsequently reverts, the war excess will be adjusted from the date of reversion to the amount that would have been issuable if such promotion had not taken place.

Soldiers not in receipt of full pay from Army Funds, etc.

25. A soldier who, on or after 30th June, 1946, is either—

(a) temporarily not in receipt of pay from army funds, e.g., for disciplinary reasons, compassionate release or agricultural leave; or will, from the date his entitlement is restored or the date he reverts to British rates of pay, have his war excess assessed or re-assessed at the amount that would have been issuable on that date under the above rules if he had been on full pay from army funds throughout in the ranks and appointments actually held (or the nearest comparable appointments) without affecting the actual position as regards counting of service. In the case, however, of a conviction or dispensation with trial for desertion or fraudulent enlistment after 30th June, 1946, the soldier will lose any entitlement to benefit under the war excess rules (a) if the apprehension for desertion takes place after 30th June, 1946, or (b) in the case of fraudulent enlistment, if the date of the conviction or the order dispensing with trial is after 30th June, 1946.

26. A soldier compulsorily recalled from release or overseas leave after 30th June, 1946, who has not previously had a war excess determined, will have his war excess assessed on the basis of the rate of pay to which he was entitled on the last day of duty. If a war excess was determined before release leave began, it will be resumed on recall.

Army Council's instructions to the foregoing Warrant

Transfers from the Royal Navy and Royal Air Force.

1. With reference to para. 1(b) of the Schedule, certain naval ratings and airmen were compulsorily discharged for immediate re-enlistment into the Army and were allowed, within certain limits, to continue on their former Royal Naval or Royal Air Force rates of pay under War Office letters 27/General/2930 (F 2M/3), dated 5th August, 1944, and 27/General/2950 (F 2M/3), dated 20th February, 1945. The provisions of these letters will continue to apply to them until such time as the appropriate Army rate under Section I of the Schedule is not less favourable or until any earlier date on which they are liable to revert to Army rates under the above quoted letters. In those cases where the twelve months concessionary period for former airmen of R.A.F. Groups I-IV expires on or after 30th June, 1946, the soldier will thereupon revert to the Army rate admissible under this Warrant or, if more favourable, to the Group V rate which would have been issuable on 30th June, 1946, for the rank and classification held immediately before his discharge from the Royal Air Force.

War Service Increments.

2. War service increments, as such, do not form part of the new pay code; those granted on or before 30th June, 1946, are taken into account for the purposes of Section IV of the Schedule (War Excesses).

Long Service and Good Conduct Pay

3. This pay does not form part of the new pay code, and no further grants or re-grants will be made after 30th June, 1946, but this does not preclude subsequent adjustment of a claim which arises on or before that date.

Additional Pay

4. With reference to para. 4 of the Schedule, the rates of pay authorized in this Warrant are regarded as covering adequately the full range of duties which may be expected of a serving soldier. The fact that a soldier may be called upon to perform duties which are additional to those ordinarily attaching to his rank or appointment or which do not strictly pertain to his particular regiment or corps will not be considered to justify the grant of extra remuneration.

5. (a) Hard-lying money will be paid under naval conditions to soldiers employed with the Royal Navy or in marine craft in respect of the discomfort attendant upon living and sleeping on board certain types of craft operating in the open sea. It is payable only for the actual days on which the soldiers necessarily live and sleep on board and not during periods of leave or other occasions when living and sleeping on shore.

(b) Hard-lying money will not be paid without prior War Office approval. Applications should be made through the usual channels, and should give the following information :—

(i) Regimental particulars.
(ii) Name and class of vessel concerned.
(iii) Service on which the soldiers were engaged.
(iv) Period for which hard-lying money is claimed.
(v) A certificate that the soldiers were necessarily required to live and sleep on board; if they served alongside naval personnel in receipt of hard-lying money, the fact should be stated.

(c) It is a condition for hard-lying money that the vessel must be employed mainly on sea service, involving sleeping on board during considerable periods in the open sea. Payment is not made where the vessel is employed exclusively in harbours or in smooth waters, e.g., Spithead or the Firth of Forth, or in vessels employed at sea for short periods only or at sea in the day time only.

(d) Full-rates or half-rates are payable according to the type of vessel.

6. The allowance for work of an objectionable nature will not be granted without prior War Office approval. The type of work contemplated is the emptying of stagnant wells or cesspools.

7. Additional pay under para. 5 (h) of the Schedule is restricted to those employed on the disposal of human excreta by incineration or by other non-mechanical or non-chemical means and where no civilian contractor is employed. The additional pay is issuable only for the days of actual employment on these duties and the award will be published in Part II/III Orders at the end of each accounting period.

Reckoning of Service

8. For the purpose of calculating a " continuous period exceeding 28 days " which is not to reckon as service, separate periods in relation to any one offence will be aggregated, e.g., where a soldier is absent for 12 days, under open arrest on rejoining, and is later sentenced to 21 days detention for the absence, the total number of days on which pay is forfeited, viz., 33, will be disallowed.

9. Former service which is not reckonable under the provisions of Section II of the Schedule, para. 8 (a) and (b), will be considered by the Army Council only if the conditions of King's Regulations, 1940, para. 266, are fulfilled.

Initial Classifications

10. The rate of pay for serjeants and above as at 1st July, 1946, plus rank and service increments will be assessed by paymasters. The initial classification of soldiers of the rank of corporal and below as at 1st July, 1946, will be carried out by paymasters in accordance with the Appendix to these instructions. Rank and service increments as at 1st July, 1946, will also be assessed by paymasters. Further instructions will be issued regarding the classification and re-classification of soldiers after 1st July, 1946.

War Excesses

11. A soldier whose release or terminal leave begins after 1st July, 1946, will receive throughout such leave the rate of pay (including war excess under Section IV of the Schedule) admissible on the last day of duty, or the rate appropriate under Section I of the Schedule to any higher rank for which pay is admissible during the leave under Army Order 4 of 1946, whichever is the greater. Where, however, a war excess admissible on the last day of duty has taken into account additional pay, etc., not admissible during release leave under Army Order 4 of 1946, Part II, para. 3, of the Schedule, the war excess will be re-assessed with effect from the first day of release leave to take into account only the items admissible under that authority.

Digitized by Google

12. Additional pay of a casual nature, as referred to in para. 20 of the Schedule, will be taken to mean any additional pay which could not be retained during the first 21 days of absence owing to sickness or on leave, under the provisions of Army Order 215 of 1941, or which is not authorized under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Articles 871, 872, 879 and 882.

13. A soldier who has forfeited service for pay purposes owing to conviction or dispensation with trial for desertion or fraudulent enlistment and who has such forfeited service restored after 30th June, 1946, under the provisions of King's Regulations, 1940, para. 266, will not become entitled to benefit under the war excess rules or to have an existing war excess increased thereby.

General Accounting Instructions

14. For the purpose of arriving at the rank and service for increments for the initial classification, particulars of qualifying rank and/or service will be obtained by the paymaster from the Officer i/c Records on Pay Form 85 where considered necessary.

15. Commanding officers will publish in Part II/III Orders, as soon as possible after receipt of this Army Order, the particulars of soldiers who will be eligible on 1st July, 1946, for a higher classification (e.g. three star) than that which can be assessed by the paymaster in the initial classification.

16. At stations abroad where a unit is administered by a 2nd Echelon, commanding officers will compile A.Fs. W 3011 on the lines laid down in para. 15 above as soon as possible after 1st July, 1946, to enable the necessary entries to appear in 2nd Echelon Part II Orders.

17. The soldier's " pay dates " for increments for service as a man and also for increments for rank service as a warrant or non-commissioned officer will be recorded on the soldier's pay account. The paymaster will be responsible for adjusting rates of pay when rank and service increments become due on or after 1st July, 1946. The fresh rates of pay will be notified to commanding officers on A.F. N 1483, for inclusion in the soldier's Army Book 64 (Part II).

18. Commanding officers are responsible for publication in Part II/III Orders of classifications and re-classifications consequent on casualties affecting a soldier's pay occurring on or after 1st July, 1946.

19. Immediately the initial classification has been made, the regimental paymaster will enter on Pay Form 84 full particulars of the old rate of pay as recorded on the soldier's pay account from information to hand at the time of preparation of the pay form and also the new rate of pay as at 1st July, 1946, plus rank and service increments. The pay forms will then be despatched to the soldier's commanding officer.

Digitized by Google

20. (a) On receipt of Pay Form 84, the commanding officer will compare the old rate of pay shown therein with the last rate already recorded in the soldier's A.B. 64 (Part II). Where the old rate of pay particulars are agreed, the new rate of pay, classification and " pay date/s " shown on Pay Form 84 will be entered on the appropriate pages in the soldier's A.B. 64 (Part II). Pay Form 84 will be completed accordingly and returned to the regimental paymaster.

(b) Where it is evident that the paymaster has not given effect to a casualty affecting pay which occurred before 1st July, 1946, or if any doubt exists as to the correctness of the old rate of pay shown on Pay Form 84, it will be returned to the paymaster, showing thereon full particulars of the old rate of pay last recorded in the soldier's A.B. 64 (Part II), together with reasons for disagreement.

21. In no case will a soldier's A.B. 64 (Part II) be amended to show his rate of pay under the initial classification until Pay Form 84 is received from the paymaster and has been agreed.

22. Where a Pay Form 84 is received in respect of a soldier who has left the unit, it will be forwarded, whenever possible, by the receiving unit, to the officer under whom the soldier is serving; otherwise the pay form should be returned to the paymaster concerned for disposal with information regarding the soldier's last known situation.

23. Where a war excess is included in the soldier's new rate of pay, in no case will a fresh rate of pay on subsequent classification or re-classification be entered in the soldier's A.B. 64 (Part II) until A.F. N 1483 or form in lieu is received from the paymaster.

24. Any additional pay which was in issue at a rate above 6*d.* on 30th June, 1946, and is included under Section IV, para. 20, of the Schedule when determining the amount of war excess in the new rates of pay, has to be abated when the soldier ceases to perform the duties for which the additional pay was granted. It will be necessary, therefore, for the names of all soldiers who were in receipt of additional pay on 30th June, 1946, at a rate above 6*d.*, to be published in the last Part II/III Order of each month showing whether they are continuing or have ceased to perform the duties for which the additional pay was granted.

25. Where a warrant or non-commissioned officer reverts to the rank of corporal or below, he will be immediately classified under para. 2, Table B, of the Schedule. Such classification will be notified in the Part II/III Orders publishing the reversion.

THE WAR OFFICE,
5th September, 1946

ROYAL WARRANT

27/GENERAL/3019 A.O. 138/1946

Short Service Engagements

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS WE deem it expedient to make special provisions for the grant of financial benefits to experienced men who are accepted for re-enlistment on short service engagements in Our Army for periods of three or four years with the Colours; and for the grant of similar benefits to soldiers of Our Regular Army who are accepted for a period of supplemental service of three years;

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that with effect from 26th April, 1946, soldiers re-enlisted on a short service engagement or undertaking a period of supplemental service shall be granted bounties and gratuities in accordance with the Schedule attached to this Our Warrant.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this 28th day of August, 1946, in the 10th year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,
PETHICK-LAWRENCE.

SCHEDULE

Short Service Engagements

1. (a) Soldiers who are serving or have served with the Colours for a period of not less than two years (other than regular soldiers who have not completed their engagement, and reservists of the Royal Army Reserve, Section B) are eligible for a limited period to re-enlist, under conditions laid down by the Army Council, on a short service engagement for a period of either three or four years.

(b) Within this scheme, soldiers may also be accepted for re-enlistment on a short service engagement for a period of three years for employment with the Polish Resettlement Corps.

2. Initial Bounty.—A bounty of £25 will be paid on completion of their re-enlistment to soldiers re-enlisted on a short service engagement under para. 1(a). A bounty will not be payable to soldiers re-enlisted with the limited liability under para. 1(b).

3. Terminal Gratuity.—(a) Soldiers re-enlisted under para. 1 will be paid on completion of the period of their short service engagement a terminal gratuity of £25 for each complete year of service under that engagement.

(b) No terminal gratuity will be granted to a soldier discharged for misconduct. A proportionate gratuity not exceeding an amount calculated at the rate of £25 a year for the period served before discharge will be admissible under conditions laid down by the Army Council, in respect of a soldier who, before completion of the period of his short service engagement, is discharged for any reason other than misconduct.

(c) A soldier who, during the period of a short service engagement under para. 1, re-enlists on a normal regular engagement will not be eligible for a terminal gratuity under sub-para. (a) or (b) above, but instead will be granted a special gratuity of £25 on the date when the short service engagement would have expired. His service on the short service engagement and any previous service will reckon for service pension or gratuity under normal rules, and the initial bounty and special gratuity of £25 will be ignored for this purpose.

(d) A soldier who, on discharge from a short service engagement, has completed sufficient service (including his service on that engagement) to qualify for a Service pension may be granted the pension for which he is so qualified, in which case no terminal gratuity will be payable but initial bounty will not be recovered.

(e) Service for which a terminal gratuity is payable or has been paid will not be reckonable for normal service gratuity.

Regular Soldiers

4. Regular soldiers serving with the Colours on 26th April, 1946, will be eligible, for a limited period, under conditions laid down by the Army Council, to undertake a period of supplemental service of three years. They will be required either to re-enlist for supplemental service immediately or to undertake to re-enlist at a later date as prescribed by the Army Council in order to provide for the required supplemental service.

5. Initial Bounty.—(a) Soldiers who have undertaken the supplemental service in accordance with para. 4 will be paid an initial bounty of £25 on completion of the re-enlistment or undertaking as required by that paragraph.

(b) If a soldier, who has received an initial bounty by virtue of having completed an undertaking to re-enlist at a later date as prescribed, fails through his own fault to carry out his undertaking to re-enlist when required to do so, he will be required to refund the sum of £25.

Digitized by Google

6. Terminal Gratuity.—(a) Soldiers who have undertaken the supplemental service in accordance with para. 4 will be eligible, on completion of the period of supplemental service (as defined in para. 7 below), to receive a terminal gratuity of £75.

(b) No terminal gratuity will be granted to a soldier discharged for misconduct during the period of supplemental service, nor to a soldier whose service is terminated for any reason before he enters upon the period of supplemental service; but a proportionate gratuity will be admissible, subject to conditions laid down by the Army Council, not exceeding an amount calculated at the rate of £25 for each complete year for the period of supplemental service completed before discharge, in the case of a soldier who, before completion of the full period of supplemental service, is discharged for any reason other than misconduct.

7. Supplemental Service Period.—(a) The period of supplemental service will, except as provided below, be the final three years of the period of Colour service of the new engagement entered into, or to be entered into, under para. 4 above.

(b) When a soldier, having entered into a new engagement under para. 4 above, extends his Colour service, the period of supplemental service will be transferred to the final three years with the Colours under the extended engagement.

(c) When a soldier, having entered into a new engagement under para. 4, or having extended his service on that engagement, re-enlists or re-engages to complete 22 years' service, the period of supplemental service will be transferred to the final three years with the Colours following the re-engagement then entered into.

(d) Where a soldier, enters into a continuance of service beyond 22 years', the last three years of this actual service will be regarded as the period of supplemental service.

(e) When the original period of supplemental service is transferred under sub-para. (b) or (c) above, no terminal gratuity will be paid except in respect of the period of supplemental service so transferred.

8. Pensionable Service.—(a) Supplemental service will not count both for terminal gratuity and for service pension or gratuity. A soldier who is discharged or transferred to the reserve during or at the end of his period of supplemental service may, however, elect to forgo his terminal gratuity and to count his supplemental service towards service pension or increased service pension.

(b) Where a soldier who elects to receive a terminal gratuity has sufficient service before the supplemental period to qualify him for a service pension, that pension may be awarded to him, in addition to the terminal gratuity, from the date of his discharge or transfer to the reserve.

Digitized by Google

(c) A soldier qualified for terminal gratuity may receive in addition any service gratuity admissible in respect of his service preceding the supplemental service.

(d) A soldier who is re-enlisted for the purpose of ultimately undertaking a period of supplemental service may, if to his advantage, be regarded for pension purposes as having continued to serve on his previous engagement and as having entered into extensions of Colour service, re-engagements and continuances on the dates which would have been applicable had he not so re-enlisted.

Grant of Short Service Regular Army Commissions in the Royal Army Chaplains' Department

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS WE deem it expedient to provide for the grant of Short Service Commissions in Our Royal Army Chaplains' Department;

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that such commissions shall be granted under the conditions specified in the Schedule to this Our Warrant, and that the provisions of Our Warrant for the Pay, Appointment, Promotion and Non-Effective Pay of Our Army, dated 29th February, 1940, as subsequently amended or modified, shall be generally applicable to officers granted such commissions, but shall, in so far as they may be inconsistent with the provisions of this Our Warrant, be regarded as modified accordingly.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this 2nd day of September, 1946, in the tenth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

J. CHUTER EDE.

SCHEDULE

(1) Short Service Regular Army Commissions for Chaplains may be granted to selected clergymen or serving chaplains not holding permanent Regular Army Commissions for three, four or five years on the Active List.

(2) Such commissions will normally be granted for service as chaplain, 4th class, but where they are granted to serving chaplains or to chaplains who have served since 3rd September, 1939, they may be granted in the substantive rank equivalent to the substantive or war substantive rank held by the applicant at the time of his appointment, and with the seniority in such rank held at that time. Where for any reason a chaplain cannot be appointed in the rank equivalent to his war substantive rank he may, on his own application, be accepted in a lower rank.

(3) Short Service Regular Army Commissions will not be granted to applicants over 45 years of age, except in special cases approved by the Army Council.

(4) Chaplains granted Short Service Regular Army Commissions will receive pay and allowances at the current rates appropriate to their rank. As a temporary measure all previous service, as defined in the Pay Warrant, 1940, Articles 439 and 440, in a paid rank will reckon towards increments of pay in the same or a lower rank.

(5) On the satisfactory completion of the full period of Short Service on the Active List for which chaplains have engaged, a gratuity will be payable at the rate of £75 for each year served. In the event of premature termination of service other than at the officer's own request, or for misconduct, a proportion of the gratuity may be granted. A chaplain who is appointed to a permanent Regular Army Commission while holding a Short Service Commission will not be entitled to any gratuity under this paragraph, but the service given on a Short Service Commission will reckon, subject to the normal rules, towards ultimate retired pay or gratuity as a permanent regular officer.

Where, however, a war excess admissible on the last day of duty has taken into account additional pay, etc., not admissible during release leave under Army Order 4 of 1946, Part II, para. 3, of the Schedule, the war excess will be reassessed with effect from the first day of release leave to take into account only the items admissible under that authority.

An officer entitled to qualification pay on the last day of duty will continue to receive it during release leave.

(ii) One-third of all other rank service in excess of 12 years as described in the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 431(m), (i), (ii) and (iii),* but excluding boy's service.

SECTION J—SURVEYORS OF WORKS

Army Order 180 of 1941 (as amended) will continue to apply, but, with effect from 1st July, 1946, the scale of pay laid down in Section B of this Schedule will be substituted for the scale provided in that Army Order and, as a temporary measure, Surveyors of Works holding permanent Regular Army Commissions will have the option of the pay and conditions of service laid down in Section I of this Schedule of those laid down in Army Order 180 of 1941 as modified above.

Surveyors of Works appointed to Emergency commissions before 19th October, 1941, will, as a temporary measure, have the option of pay under Section I of this Schedule with promotion as admissible for emergency quarter-masters, or the conditions of service laid down in Army Order 180 of 1941, as modified above.

Surveyors of Works appointed to Emergency commissions on or after 19th October, 1941, will, as a temporary measure, be subject to the conditions of service laid down in Army Order 180 of 1941, as modified above.

SECTION K—WAR EXCESSES

1. The rules in this section will apply to all officers to whom this Warrant applies who were serving on 30th June, 1946, and who continue to serve after that date ; they will also apply to officers who, having been released before 1st July, 1946, are appointed to permanent or short service commissions on or after that date, provided that they had made written application for such appointment before proceeding on release leave under the Release Regulations, 1945.

* Army Order 114 of 1944.

2. Calculation of War Excesses

(a) Where an officer, on 30th June, 1946, was entitled to a rate of pay, including war service increments, and such additions to pay as are defined in para. (b) below, which in the aggregate were in excess of the new rate of pay authorized by this Warrant, the difference will be regarded as a war excess, which will be paid in addition to the new rate of pay. This war excess will be subject to adjustment in accordance with the rules set out hereunder.

(b) The following will rank as additions to pay for the purpose of determining war excess :—

(i) Staff pay (including the additional 2*s.* o*d.* a day under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 222).

(ii) Technical pay under Army Order 58 of 1943, as amended.

(iii) Command pay.

(iv) Charge pay.

(v) Corps, engineer and signal pay.

(vi) Additional pay (subject to sub-para.(c) below).

(c) Additional pay under Section A, paras. 3, 4 and 5 of this Schedule will not be taken into account in calculating a war excess unless the officer so elects. Such election must be made in writing before 1st October, 1946, and once made will take effect from 1st July, 1946, and will be final.

(d) In the case of a re-employed retired officer, any excess over the normal pay of the appointment, of which he is in receipt on 30th June, 1946, under the provisions of the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 496, will not be taken into account in the calculation of war excess.

3. Subsequent abatement of War Excesses

(a) Where the rate of pay under this Warrant is increased by reason of increments, promotion, or by the grant of qualification pay, or additional pay if the officer has so elected under para. 2(c) above, the war excess will be reduced by the amount of the increase, or by such less amount as may be necessary to extinguish it completely.

(b) An officer who has had taken into account in his war excess an addition to pay as defined in para. 2 above will, on vacating the appointment or ceasing to perform the duties for which it is drawn or on 1st July, 1949, whichever is the earlier, have his war excess reassessed as if such extra pay had not been drawn.

Digitized by Google

4. Assessment or Reassessment of War Excesses on or after 1st July, 1946

(a) (i) When an officer reverts on or after 1st July, 1946, to a lower paid rank than that held on 30th June, 1946, his war excess will be assessed or reassessed on the basis of either of the following alternatives, whichever is the more favourable :—

(1) As though the lower rank and appointment had been held on 30th June, 1946, or

(2) By continuance of the rate of war excess as it stood immediately before reversion.

When an officer reverts on 1st July, 1946, the war excess may be assessed on the basis of the higher rank.

(ii) The war excess so assessed or reassessed will be subject to abatement under the rules in para. 3 above.

(b) Notwithstanding the rule in para. 3(a) above, where an officer has reverted to a lower paid rank and is promoted to a paid rank after 30th June, 1946, and within 61 days of such reversion, his war excess will be reassessed, from the date of promotion, at the amount that would have been issuable had he not so reverted (except that the intervening period in the lower rank will not reckon towards increments in the higher rank).

(c) Where an officer is promoted after 30th June, 1946, and subsequently reverts, his war excess will be adjusted, from the date of reversion, to the amount that would have been issuable had the promotion not taken place.

(d) (i) When an officer has relinquished an appointment carrying an addition to pay under para. 2(b) above, and, after 30th June, 1946, and before 1st July, 1949, is appointed to a post of a similar nature, then, subject to the rule in sub-para. (ii) below, his war excess may, if such a course is favourable to him, be assessed or reassessed to take into account the additions to pay which the new appointment would have carried under the rules in force on 30th June, 1946, provided that the amount so reckoned shall not exceed the additions to pay appropriate to the appointment previously relinquished.

(ii) The provisions of the preceding paragraph will not apply if the new appointment is assumed more than 61 days after relinquishing the previous appointment.

The following periods, however, will not be included in reckoning this period of 61 days :—

(1) In the case of transfers involving a sea or air passage, the period of the passage and any time spent awaiting a passage ;

Digitized by Google

(2) where an officer proceeds on duly authorized leave from a Command overseas, the period of such leave in addition to the period specified in sub-para. (d)(ii)(1) above.

(e) Officers of other Arms who were attached to the R.A.O.C. and R.E.M.E. and, on 30th June, 1946, were in receipt of pay under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 368, will, from the cessation of such attachment or from 1st July, 1949, whichever is the earlier, be reassessed for war excess as though such attachment had not taken place.

(f) If an officer who has elected under para. 2(c) that parachute pay should be taken into account in determining his war excess had a reserved right to parachute pay at 4*s.* 0*d.* a day under Army Order 110 of 1945, para. 12 of the Schedule, but was, on 30th June, 1946, in receipt of the 2*s.* 0*d.* rate, because he was then drawing command staff or other additional pay, and if from a date on or after 1st July, 1946, the reserved right would have become effective had the previous regulations remained in force, the war excess will from that date be reassessed as if the 4*s.* 0*d.* rate had been in issue on 30th June, 1946.

Officers not in receipt of full pay from Army Funds, etc.

5. An officer who, on or after 30th June, 1946—

(a) is temporarily not in receipt of full pay from army funds (e.g., seconded, serving with security organizations, on unpaid leave) ; or

(b) has been released from the Army, having submitted, before proceeding on release leave, a written application for a permanent or short service commission ; or

(c) is temporarily not in receipt of corps, engineer or signal pay ; or

(d) is on Colonial or Sudan Government rates of pay ;

will, from the date he—

(i) is restored to full pay from army funds, or

(ii) becomes entitled to pay from army funds on being granted a permanent or short service commission, or

(iii) would, under the rules in force on 30th June, 1946, again have become entitled to corps, etc., pay, or

(iv) reverts to British rates of pay, have his war excess assessed or reassessed at the amount which would have been issuable on that date if he had been on full pay from army funds throughout in the ranks and appointments actually held, or the nearest comparable appointments, without affecting the actual position as regards counting service.

1. The following increases in the pay of officers and auxiliaries of the Auxiliary Territorial Service and members of Voluntary Aid Detachments enrolled in the United Kingdom have been approved as a temporary measure with effect from 1st July, 1946 :—

	s.	d.
Officers of the Auxiliary Territorial Service ...	1	0	a day.

These increases may also be granted to officers and auxiliaries of the Auxiliary Territorial Service enrolled overseas, except those enrolled into a locally-raised unit or section.

2. Officers and auxiliaries of the Auxiliary Territoral Service and members of Voluntary Aid Detachments who have proceeded on release or terminal leave on or before 1st July, 1946, will continue, during such leave, to be paid at the rates of pay admissible on 30th June, 1946.

3. War Service Increments in respect of service rendered up to and including 30th June, 1946, will remain in issue, but where officers and auxiliaries of the Auxiliary Territorial Service and members of Voluntary Aid Detachments are promoted or reverted in rank on or after 1st July, 1946, their War Service Increments will be issuable at the rate appropriate to the new rank.

Officers and auxiliaries of the Auxiliary Territorial Service and members of Voluntary Aid Detachments who rejoin for service on and after 1st July, 1946, will be eligible for War Service Increments in respect of their former reckonable service before 1st July, 1946.

This paragraph applies equally to officers and auxiliaries of the Auxiliary Territorial Service in receipt of rates of pay proportionate to British rates.

4. The following special conditions will apply to officers and auxiliaries of the Auxiliary Territorial Service who on and after 30th June, 1946, were serving in the special Indian pay code area, which for the purposes of this Army Order means all the Far Eastern territories excluding India and Burma in which, on 30th June, 1946, officers and auxiliaries were in receipt of pay and allowances under Indian Regulations.

(i) Officers and auxiliaries who on 30th June, 1946, were in receipt of pay under Indian Regulations will, with effect from 1st July, 1946, be paid at the rates and under the conditions of Regulations for the Auxiliary Territorial Service, 1945, as subsequently amended or modified, together with the addition in paragraph 1 above and the Indian war excess, if any, under sub-paragraph (ii) below.

(ii) Where, calculated according to the appropriate formula set out below, an officer's or auxiliary's entitlement to Indian emoluments on 30th June, 1946, exceeds her entitlement to British emoluments on 1st July, 1946, the difference will be paid as an " Indian War Excess ".

war excess will be reassessed, from the date she becomes entitled to the new rate of local overseas allowance, as if she had been serving in the new station on 30th June, 1946.

(iii) When the rate of pay, including War Service Increments, is increased by reason of length of service, promotion or re-classification, the Indian war excess will be abated by the amount of the increase, or by any such less amount as may be necessary to extinguish it completely Other extra emoluments issuable under Regulations for the Auxiliary Territorial Service, 1945, to which an officer or auxiliary becomes entitled on or after 1st July, 1946, will not be taken in abatement of Indian war excess.

(iv) Where extra pay or additional pay is included in the calculation of the Indian war excess and the duties for which it was granted are relinquished or cease to be performed, the Indian war excess will be reassessed, with effect from the date of relinquishment, as if entitlement to the extra or additional pay had ceased from 30th June, 1946.

(v) An auxiliary who was demustered on or before 30th June, 1946, and retains her former tradeswoman's rates of pay for a period of six months or twelve months under the conditions of Army Council Instruction 695 of 1945, as amended, will have her Indian war excess reassessed from the end of such period as though she had reverted to non-tradeswoman's rates on 30th June, 1946.

(vi) Where an officer or an auxiliary reverts or is reduced on or after 1st July, 1946, to a lower paid rank than that held on 30th June, 1946, the Indian war excess will be assessed or reassessed, from the date of reversion or reduction, on the basis of whichever is the more favourable of the following alternatives :—

(a) as though the lower rank had been held on 30th June, 1946, or

(b) by continuance of the Indian war excess at the amount at which it stood immediately before reversion or reduction.

Where an officer or auxiliary reverted or was reduced on 1st July, 1946, the Indian war excess may be assessed on the basis of the higher rank. The Indian war excess so assessed will be subject to abatement as in sub-paragraph (iii).

(vii) Where an officer or an auxiliary is promoted after 30th June, 1946, and subsequently reverts or is reduced, the Indian war excess will be adjusted, from the date of reversion or reduction, to the amount that would have been issuable if such promotion had not taken place.

(viii) Notwithstanding the rule in sub-paragraph (iii), where an officer or an auxiliary has reverted or been reduced to a lower paid rank and is promoted to paid rank after 30th June, 1946, and within 61 days of such reversion or reduction, the Indian war excess will be reassessed, from the date of promotion, at the amount that would have been issuable had she not so reverted or been reduced, except that the intervening service in the lower rank will not count for increments in the higher rank.

(ix) Indian Transitional Allowance will be payable during the period 1st July, 1946, to 31st March, 1950, to officers of the rank of Chief and Senior Commander at the following daily rates :—

	From 1st July, 1946, to 31st March, 1948.	From 1st April, 1948, to 31st March, 1949.	From 1st April, 1949, to 31st March, 1950.

Officers entering the special Indian pay code area after 30th June, 1946, will receive Indian Transitional Allowance at the current rates.

(x) On leaving the special Indian pay code area on reposting (date of embarkation in the case of those leaving by sea), officers and auxiliaries will cease to be entitled to Indian war excess and Indian Transitional Allowance.

Officers and auxiliaries who leave the area on reposting after 30th June, 1946, and subsequently return to it will be treated as if they had not previously been in the area.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS WE deem it expedient further to modify as from the 1st July, 1946, the conditions under which Special Dependants' Allowance and Supplementary Allowances are issuable in respect of soldiers eligible therefor;

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that the amendments shown in the Schedule attached to this Our Warrant shall be made to the Regulations contained in the Schedule attached to Our Warrant dated the 25th November, 1941*.

SCHEDULE

SECTION B—SPECIAL DEPENDANTS' ALLOWANCE

Paragraph 15 (as amended by Army Orders 118 of 1944 and 95 of 1946). Below last line add new sub-paragraph.

46/GENERAL/1928

Where the total of Special Dependants' Allowance and qualifying allotment in issue on 30th June, 1946, is less than the total payable from 1st July, 1946 (based upon the scale of Marriage Allowance and qualifying allotment introduced on that date) the amount payable to the unmarried dependant will be increased to conform to the new rates. Where, however, because of a compulsory stoppage of pay imposed for the maintenance of another person or of an allotment made in respect of an allowance claimed under the provisions of para. 17C, the soldier has been unable to make the full qualifying allotment normally required as a condition of issue of Special Dependants' Allowance and a supplement to qualifying allotment has been in issue under the provisions of para. 18, the amount of such supplement will be merged in the new rate of Special Dependants' Allowance payable from 1st July, 1946. If the soldier is still unable to make the full qualifying allotment, the new rate of Special Dependants' Allowance will be issued with such amount of qualifying allotment as the man is able to make within the permissible limits, no further supplement being admissible in addition.

46/GENERAL/1928

The provisions of this Section cease to apply after the 30th June, 1946, except as provided in Part II of the Schedule to Army Order 94 of 1946.

Paragraph 18. Add at end:—

46/GENERAL/1928

No supplement to Special Dependants' Allowance will be admissible in cases where the additional charge on the soldier's pay, precluding his making the requisite qualifying allotment for Special Dependants' Allowance, arose after 30th June, 1946, or where the amount of supplement payable before 1st July, 1946, has been merged in the new rate of Special Dependants' Allowance admissible from that date (see para. 15). In such cases the Special Dependants' Allowance normally admissible will be paid with such amount of qualifying allotment as the soldier is able to make within the permissible limits from his pay.

SCHEDULE

PART I

1. The Indian Pay Code Area and the Special Indian Pay Code Area

For the purpose of this Warrant, the Indian pay code area means India, Burma and the Far Eastern territories in which nursing officers were, on 30th June, 1946, in receipt of pay and allowances in accordance with Indian Regulations. The special Indian pay code area means the same territories excluding India and Burma.

2. Indian War Excess

So long as a nursing officer, who was on 30th June, 1946, in receipt of pay and allowances in accordance with Indian Regulations, remains posted within the special Indian pay code area, the following rules will apply.

Where, reckoned according to the formula in para. 3 below, a nursing officer's entitlement to Indian emoluments on 30th June, 1946, exceeds her entitlement to British emoluments on 1st July, 1946, the difference will be paid as an Indian war excess, subject to adjustment in accordance with paras. 4 and 5 below.

3. Formula for the calculation of Indian War Excesses

Indian Emoluments on 30th June, 1946	British Emoluments on 1st July, 1946
Consolidated rates of Indian pay, less 30 Rupees a month in respect of servant allowance.	British Pay Board and washing allowance at the overseas rate.
War service increments at rupee rates.	Single accommodated rate of local overseas allowance.

4. Subsequent adjustment of Indian War Excesses

The rules for the adjustment of war excesses laid down in Army Order 188 of 1946, will also apply to Indian war excesses, together with the rules in the following paragraph.

5. If a posting from one station to another within the special Indian pay code area after 30th June, 1946, involves a change in the rate of local overseas allowance, Indian war excess will be re-calculated as if the nursing officer had been serving at the new station on 30th June, 1946. No alteration will, however, be made in the rate of Indian war excess in respect of movements on temporary duty within or outside the Indian pay code area, except as provided in Part III of this Schedule.

PART II

6. Indian Transitional Allowance

A temporary addition to pay to be known as Indian transitional allowance will be payable during the period 1st July, 1946, to 31st March, 1950, to nursing officers while posted to the special Indian pay code area in accordance with the following instructions. Nursing officers posted to the area after 30th June, 1946, will receive Indian transitional allowance at current rates from the date of disembarkation in the area. The rates payable will be based on the rate of pay, including charge, specialist, or additional pay, but excluding Indian war excess, currently in issue.

7. The annual rates of Indian transitional allowance are :—

Rate of Pay	From 1st July, 1946, to 31st March, 1948.	From 1st April, 1948, to 31st March, 1949.	From 1st April, 1949, to 31st March, 1950.

PART III

Adjustment of emoluments on change of station

8. A nursing officer who is directly posted from India or Burma to the special Indian pay code area will be dealt with, for the purposes of this Warrant, as if she had been posted from one station to another within that area.

9. A nursing officer who was on 30th June, 1946, in receipt of pay and allowances in accordance with Indian regulations and is subsequently posted to a station outside the Indian pay code area will, with effect from the date of such posting, have a war excess, if any, on pay assessed at the amount that would be issuable under Army Order 188 of 1946, if she had been serving at the new station from 30th June, 1946, in the ranks held since that date.

10. Nursing officers will retain entitlement to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance so long as they remain posted to the special Indian pay code area and are located in the Indian pay code area. Subject to the exceptions in the following paragraphs, they will cease to be entitled to these emoluments on embarkation for a destination outside the Indian pay code area.

11. Nursing officers will retain entitlement to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance, provided that they remain posted to the special Indian pay code area, while located outside the Indian pay code area on duly authorized leave, temporary duty, or courses lasting less than ten weeks, provided that they are due to return to the Indian pay code area on completion of the authorized period, and subject to para. 12 below.

12. Where a nursing officer has left the Indian pay code area, retaining Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance under para. 11 above, and it is subsequently decided that she will not return to the area, her entitlement to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance will cease from the date she is notified of the decision that she will not so return, and the provisions of para. 9 above will then apply to her.

13. If a nursing officer remains outside the Indian pay code area, in the circumstances described in para. 11 above, for a total period exceeding six months from the date of embarkation, she will cease to be entitled to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance on the expiry of such six months, and the provisions of para. 9 above will apply to her, as though she had been posted to the station at which she is then serving. On returning to the Indian pay code area, she will again become entitled to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance as if she had not left the area, and the provisions of para. 9 above will cease to apply to her.

14. A nursing officer who has ceased to be entitled to Indian wa excess and Indian transitional allowance otherwise than as provided i para. 13 above, and who subsequently returns to the special India pay code area, will be treated as if she had not previously been in th area.

The G.O.C.-in-C. of the Command concerned will be responsible for notifying the nursi officer and the paymaster when it is decided that a nursing officer will not return to the spec Indian pay code area.

SCHEDULE

PART I

The Indian Pay Code Area and the Special Indian Pay Code Area.

1. For the purposes of this Warrant the Indian pay code area means India, Burma and the Far Eastern territories in which soldiers were on 30th June, 1946, in receipt of pay and allowances in accordance with Indian Regulations. The special Indian pay code area means the same territories excluding India and Burma.

Personnel to whom this Warrant applies.

2. This Warrant applies only to soldiers of regiments and corps, the depots of which are situated in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man who serve in the special Indian pay code area, as defined in para. 1 above (including such of them as are temporary members of the Indian Unattached List).

Indian War Excess.

3. So long as a soldier, who was, on 30th June, 1946, in receipt of pay and allowances in accordance with Indian Regulations, remains posted within the special Indian pay code area, the following rules will apply.

Where, reckoned according to the formula in para. 4 below, a soldier's entitlement to Indian emoluments on 30th June, 1946, exceeds his entitlement to British emoluments on 1st July, 1946, the difference will be paid as an Indian war excess, subject to adjustment in accordance with paras. 6 to 9 below.

Formula for calculation of Indian War Excesses on Pay.

4. Indian Emoluments on 30th June, 1946	British Emoluments on 1st July, 1946
Pay, long service and good conduct pay and additional pay, but excluding Japanese Campaign pay and Indian Army Allowance.	Pay, excluding Japanese Campaign pay.
War Service increments.	Single accommodated rate of local overseas allowance.
Rupee concession.

Additional pay in all cases excludes (a) the items referred to in the Schedule to Army Order 125 of 1946, para. 5, unless a soldier has elected otherwise under the rules notified in that Army Order, and (b) additional pay of a casual* nature.

5. Married soldiers whose families continue, after 30th June, 1946, to receive payment equal to the total amount of family allowance and qualifying allotment in issue on that date or, in the case of families residing in the Indian pay code area, payment equal to the total amount of marriage allowance, separation allowance (if admissible) and qualifying allotment under Indian rules, under the provisions of Part IV, para. 20, of this Schedule, may receive as a war excess in addition to the new rates of pay, the amount (if any) by which the increase in their qualifying allotment exceeds the increase in their pay on 1st July, 1946. If their pay on 1st July, 1946, under this Warrant, is not more favourable than that in issue on 30th June, 1946, the increase in qualifying allotment will be added to their pay as a war excess in addition to any war excess admissible under para. 4 above. Similar arrangements will apply to Special Dependants Allowance.

Subsequent Adjustment of Indian War Excesses.

6. The rules for the adjustment of war excesses laid down in Army Order 125 of 1946 will also apply to Indian war excesses, together with the rules in the following paragraphs.

7. If a posting from one station to another within the special Indian pay code area after 30th June, 1946, involves a change in the rate of local overseas allowance, Indian war excess will be recalculated as if the soldier had been serving at the new station on 30th June, 1946. No alteration will, however, be made in the rate of Indian war excess in respect of movements on temporary duty within or outside the Indian pay code area, except as provided in Part III of this Schedule.

8. Indian war excess will be reduced by the amount of any increase in the components of the British emoluments, as set out in para. 4 above, arising from promotion, reclassification, etc.

9. A soldier who on 30th June, 1946, was temporarily not in receipt of Indian military rates of pay will from the date he becomes entitled to military rates, if he is still serving in the special Indian pay code area, have his war excess assessed at the amount that would have been issuable on that date if he had been on Indian military rates throughout in the ranks and appointments, or the nearest comparable appointments, actually held, without affecting the actual position as regards counting of service.

PART II

Indian Transitional Allowance.

10. A temporary addition to pay, to be known as Indian transitional allowance will be payable during the period, 1st July, 1946 to 31st March, 1950, to soldiers, of or above the rank of corporal or bombardier, while posted to the special Indian pay code area, in accordance with the following instructions. Soldiers posted to the area after 30th June, 1946, will receive Indian transitional allowance, at current rates, from the date of disembarkation in the area.

11. The daily rates of Indian transitional allowance are:—

Rank	1st July, 1946 to 31st March, 1948	1st April, 1948 to 31st March, 1949	1st April, 1949 to 31st March, 1950

Corporal or bombardier	0 6	0 4	0 2

12. Soldiers who are entitled, under Army Order 94 of 1946, to a supplementary marriage allowance from 1st April, 1947, will receive that allowance from that date if not entitled to a more favourable Indian transitional allowance, but in no case will both allowances be issuable together.

PART III

Adjustment of Emoluments on change of Station.

13. A soldier who is directly posted from India or Burma to the special Indian pay code area will be dealt with, for the purposes of this Warrant, as if he had been posted from one station to another within that area.

14. A soldier who was, on 30th June, 1946, in receipt of pay and allowances in accordance with Indian Regulations and is subsequently posted to a station outside the Indian pay code area will, with effect from the date of such posting, have a war excess, if any, assessed at the amount that would be issuable under Army Order 125 of 1946, if he had been serving at the new station from 30th June, 1946, in the rank or appointment then held, and marriage or family allowance will be adjusted in accordance with Army Order 94 of 1946.

15. Soldiers will retain their entitlement to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance so long as they remain posted to the special Indian pay code area and are located in the Indian pay code area. Subject to the exceptions in the following paragraphs, they will cease to be entitled to these emoluments on embarkation for a destination outside the Indian pay code area.

16. Soldiers will retain their entitlement to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance, provided that they remain posted to the special Indian pay code area, while located outside the Indian pay code area on duly authorized leave, temporary duty, or courses of instruction, lasting less than 10 weeks, provided that they are due to return to the Indian pay code area on completion of the authorized period, and subject to para. 17 below.

17. Where a soldier has left the Indian pay code area, retaining his Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance under para. 16 above, and it is subsequently decided that he will not return to the area, his entitlement to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance will cease from the date that he is notified* of the decision that he will not so return, and the provisions of para. 14 above will then apply to him.

* See para. 2 of the Army Council's instructions to this Warrant.

18. If a soldier remains outside the Indian pay code area, in the circumstances described in para. 16 above, for a total period exceeding six months from the date of embarkation, he will cease to be entitled to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance on the expiry of such six months and the provisions of para. 14 above will apply to him as though he had been posted to the station at which he is then serving. On returning to the Indian pay code area, he will again become entitled to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance, as if he had not left the area, and the provisions of para. 14 above will cease to apply to him.

19. A soldier who has ceased to be entitled to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance, otherwise than as provided in para. 18 above, and subsequently returns to the special Indian pay code area, will be treated as if he had not previously been in the area.

PART IV

Marriage Allowance.

20. While a married soldier who was serving in the special Indian pay code area on 30th June, 1946, continues to serve therein, allowances may continue to be issued in respect of his family, as follows:—

(a) If the family is residing outside the Indian pay code area.

Payment of the sum in issue by way of family allowance (including London Allowance and/or pre-natal allowance, if in issue) and qualifying allotment on 30th June, 1946, may continue so long as this exceeds the total payment of marriage allowance and qualifying allotment authorized in Army Order 94 of 1946, subject to the conditions in para. 21 below.

(b) If the family was residing in the Indian pay code area and continues to reside therein.

Payment of the sum of marriage allowance, separation allowance (if admissible) and qualifying allotment, in issue under Indian rules, with provision of free quarters and allied services, may continue, so long as this is more favourable than marriage allowance and qualifying allotment authorized in Army Order 94 of 1946, subject to the conditions in para. 21 below.

21. Where payments are continued as provided in para. 20 above at the rates in issue on 30th June, 1946, the rate of qualifying allotment will be adjusted to the rates provided in Part I, Section D of the Schedule to Army Order 94 of 1946 and the rates of allowance correspondingly reduced. The total payment to the family will in no circumstances be increased but will be reduced in accordance with the rules applicable on 30th June, 1946, if and when the soldier is reduced in rank or when any member of the family ceases to qualify.

Subsequent Adjustment of Indian War Excesses.

4. The rules for the adjustment of war excesses laid down in Army Order 141 of 1946, will also apply to Indian war excesses, together with the rules in the following paragraphs.

5. If an officer becomes entitled to marriage allowance after 30th June, 1946, Indian war excess will be recalculated, from the date of entitlement, as if he had been so entitled on 30th June, 1946.

6. If an officer ceases to be entitled to marriage allowance after 30th June, 1946, Indian war excess will be recalculated, from the date of cessation of entitlement, as if he had been unmarried on 30th June, 1946. Similarly, if an officer would have become entitled, under the rules in force on 30th June, 1946, to a lower rate of allowance owing, e.g., to the death of a child, Indian war excess will be recalculated, from the date of the occurrence, as if it had occurred on 30th June, 1946. Indian war excess will not, however, be adjusted if the officer becomes entitled to half-rate of marriage allowance in respect of a motherless child.

7. If a change in circumstances makes inappropriate the formula which was used for the calculation of Indian war excess, the war excess will be recalculated as if the change had occurred on 30th June, 1946, and the revised amount, if less than that previously in payment, will be issued, from the date of the change, in lieu of the amount previously issuable. Otherwise, the amount previously issuable will not be altered on this account.

8. If a posting from one station to another within the special Indian pay code area after 30th June, 1946, involves a change in the rate of local overseas allowance, Indian war excess will be recalculated as if the officer had been serving at the new station on 30th June, 1946. No alteration will, however, be made in the rate of Indian war excess in respect of movements on temporary duty within or outside the Indian pay code area, except as provided in Part III of this Schedule.

9. Indian war excess will be reduced by the amount of any increase in the components of the British emoluments as set out in para. 3 above, arising from promotion, etc.

10. Where a rate of entertainment allowance has been taken into account in calculating Indian war excess and the officer ceases to be entitled to, or becomes entitled to a lower rate of, entertainment allowance, his Indian war excess will be recalculated, from the date of the change, as if he had not been so entitled, or had been entitled to the lower rate, from 1st July, 1946.

11. An officer who, on 30th June, 1946, was temporarily not in receipt of Indian military rates of pay will, from the date he becomes entitled to military rates, if he is still serving in the special Indian pay code area, have his war excess assessed at the amount that would have been issuable on that date if he had been on Indian military rates throughout in the ranks and appointments, or the nearest comparable appointments, actually held, without affecting the actual position as regards counting service.

PART II

12. Indian Transitional Allowance.

A temporary addition to pay to be known as Indian transitional allowance will be payable during the period 1st July, 1946, to 31st March, 1950, to officers of the rank of major and above while posted to the special Indian pay code area in accordance with the following instructions. Officers posted to the area after 30th June, 1946, will receive Indian transitional allowance at current rates from the date of disembarkation in the area.

13. The daily rates of Indian transitional allowance are :—

PART III

Adjustment of Emoluments on change of Station

15. An officer who is directly posted from India or Burma to the special Indian pay code area will be dealt with, for the purposes of this Warrant, as if he had been posted from one station to another within that area.

16. An officer who was on 30th June, 1946, in receipt of pay and allowances in accordance with Indian regulations and is subsequently posted to a station outside the Indian pay code area will, with effect from the date of such posting, have a war excess, if any, on pay assessed at the amount that would be issuable under Army Order 141 of 1946, if he had been serving in the new station from 30th June, 1946, and his allowances will be governed by Army Order 94 of 1946, Part II, para 3 (d) (ii).

17. Officers will retain entitlement to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance so long as they remain posted to the special Indian pay code area and are located in the Indian pay code area. Subject to the exceptions in the following paragraphs, they will cease to be entitled to these emoluments on embarkation for a destination outside the Indian pay code area.

18. Officers will retain entitlement to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance, provided they remain posted to the special Indian pay code area, while located outside the Indian pay code area on duly authorized leave, temporary duty, or courses lasting less than two weeks, provided they are due to return to the Indian pay code area on completion of the authorized period, and subject to para. 19 below.

19. *Where an officer has left the Indian pay code area, retaining Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance under para. 18 above, and it is subsequently decided that he will not return to the area, his entitlement to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance will cease from the date he is notified of the decision that he will not so return, and the provisions of para. 16 will then apply to him.

20. If an officer remains outside the Indian pay code area, in the circumstances described in para. 18, for a total period exceeding six months from the date of embarkation, he will cease to be entitled to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance on the expiry of such six months, and the provisions of para. 16 will apply to him as though he had been posted to the station at which he is then serving.

On returning to the Indian pay code area, he will again become entitled to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance as if he had not left the area, and the provisions of para. 16 will cease to apply to him.

21. An officer who has ceased to be entitled to Indian war excess and Indian transitional allowance otherwise than as provided in para. 20 above, and subsequently returns to the special Indian pay code area, will be treated as if he had not previously been in the area.

SPECIAL ARMY ORDER

THE WAR OFFICE,
13th May, 1947

Dress for the Army—Notification of Post-War Changes

1. Consequent on the recommendations of the Committee on Post-War Dress for the Army, considerable changes in dress, as outlined below, have now been approved. Post-war tropical dress, and dress for mounted troops are, however, still under consideration, and decisions on these questions will be notified to all concerned in due course.

The changes detailed below do not cover the future dress of the Household Troops, which is the subject of separate consideration.

2. The principal changes referred to in para. 1 above are :—

(a) The ultimate abolition of service dress for all ranks except officers of the rank of full colonel and upwards, for whom it will be optional. Further instructions will be issued regarding the wearing of service dress by officers below the rank of full colonel and of No. 1 Dress by officers generally pending the introduction of No. 1 Dress for the Army as a whole (see sub-para. (b) below).

(b) The introduction of a new uniform for wear by all ranks of the Active Army and the Territorial Army on :—

(i) ceremonial occasions ;
(ii) other parades for which battle-dress is unsuitable, and
(iii) for walking out.

This dress will be known as No. 1 Dress, and for most regiments will be dark blue in colour.

Owing, however, to the general shortage of materials and difficulties of production, some considerable time must necessarily elapse before the No. 1 Dress can be brought into general use.

(c) Battle-dress will be worn for active service, training and working duties.

(d) The wearing of mess dress is held in abeyance and for the present it will not be worn.

Digitized by Google

A.O. 54/1947—contd

3. The more important details of the No. 1 Dress are shown in Appendix A, but attention is drawn specifically to the following points :—

(a) Collar.—The patrol collar has been adopted as smarter and more appropriate for formal occasions than a jacket with lapels and separate collar and tie.

(b) Waist belts.—A cloth belt of the same colour as the jacket will be worn with the No. 1 Dress by all ranks on informal occcasions. For ceremonial occasions, officers and warrant officers Class I, will wear a sash, for most regiments red in colour, but in Rifle regiments a shoulder belt will be worn. Other ranks will wear a girdle of traditional regimental colours. Details are shown in Appendix A.

(c) Head-dress.—The beret, khaki and cap, G.S., will be replaced by the coloured beret, which will be worn with No. 1 Dress on informal occasions, and with battle-dress when stocks of the former head-dresses are exhausted. This, however, will not occur for some considerable time.

(d) Leg-wear.—Overalls, Wellington boots and spurs will be abolished, except for mounted troops. Trousers and black ankle boots or shoes will be worn.

(e) Sword.—The wearing of the sword will be held in abeyance for the present. Except as specified in Appendix A, Section B(m), the wearing of the Sam Browne belt will also be held in abeyance.

(f) Great coat and over garment for other ranks.—The type of great coat and over garment to be worn by other ranks is still under consideration.

(g) Mess dress.—The introduction of No. 1 Dress, which is suitable for evening wear in the mess, will make it unnecessary, for the present, for officers to maintain a separate kit, except possibly in tropical countries.

4. Appendix B shows the scales and method of issue and upkeep, but these aspects will be covered for executive purposes by suitable amendments to the appropriate regulations, which will be issued in due course.

SECTION 2.—RATIONS

I.—PERSONS ENTITLED TO RATIONS OR RATION ALLOWANCES IN CASH

30. When admissible.—Rations or ration allowance in cash will be admissible as follows, except as otherwise stated in these regulations :—

(a) for officers and soldiers on the effective strength of the Army provided that they are not in receipt of a consolidated rate of pay ;

(b) for recruits for each day before attestation for which the special payment under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 1067, is admissible.

For boys (other than those enlisted as serving soldiers) at military schools the scale and conditions of issue will be as laid down by the Army Council from time to time.

The issue of rations will normally be restricted to entitled personnel who are fed in service messes. Entitled personnel who are not fed in service messes will draw a ration allowance. (See Part III.)

31. When not admissible.—Rations or ration allowance in cash will not be admissible :—

(a) for officers, soldiers and others when subsisted at the public expense in military or civil hospitals, military or civil prisons, or military detention barracks ;

(b) for officers, soldiers and others when fully subsisted on board ship at the public expense ;

(c) for officers, soldiers and others who would otherwise be fed in mess but who elect to make their own arrangements, except as provided in para. 47 (a) (ii) ;

(d) for officers in receipt of a sanatorium grant ;

(e) for officers, soldiers and others when billeted with subsistence, except that those who are billeted with partial subsistence may be granted such cash allowance as the Army Council may determine ;

(f) for personnel absent without leave ;

(g) for personnel who are unable to draw rations owing to their absence from their units or formations for any reason other than duty, leave or other circumstances which their C.Os. are satisfied were outside their control.

Digitized by Google

Personnel who were already receiving ration allowance will, however, continue to draw the allowance in the circumstances set out in sub-paras. (a), (f) or (g) above, provided that the relevant period does not exceed 24 hours.

32. Soldiers on release from detention, etc.—A soldier on the day of his release from a military detention barracks or prison may receive a ration or ration allowance, unless he is not released until the afternoon; if sent from abroad as a soldier under sentence for discharge in England, he may be rationed until he is discharged.

33. Active service.—During active service operations the G.O.C.-in-C. may authorize issues of free rations to persons not provided for in the foregoing regulations.

II.—SCALES OF RATIONS

34. The period covered by the ration will be midnight to midnight.

35. The term " ration " where used in these regulations means the ration approved for the station, unless otherwise stated.

36. Where reference is made in these regulations to the scales of rations promulgated in other publications, e.g. the pamphlet " Home Service Ration Scales ", local allowance regulations, or command orders, such scales will, for the purpose of Sec. I, para. 11, be regarded as granted under these regulations.

37. Home stations.—The scales of rations at home stations will be promulgated in the pamphlet " Home Service Ration Scales ".

38. Stations abroad.—The ration scales for each station abroad will be submitted for the approval of the Army Council. The scales when approved will be promulgated in the local allowance regulations or command orders of the command.

39. Special issues.—The Army Council may sanction special issues of provisions for instructional purposes to army medical laboratories and schools of cookery, and to hospitals where cooking classes are held.

40. Additions to the ration scales.—Additions to the authorized ration scales may be sanctioned by the G.O.C.-in-C. on very exceptional occasions, such as when the troops are only able to obtain their meals at irregular and inconvenient hours, owing (a) to unexpected delay in the hour of embarkation, (b) to the exigencies of the service at manœuvres or summer drills, or (c) to their being employed on unusually onerous and prolonged duty. The authority for the additional issue will be attached as a voucher to the account. No other change in the scales will be made, nor will additional issues of foodstuffs subject to national rationing in the United Kingdom be authorized, without the sanction of the Army Council.

41. Meat losses in cutting up.—When meat is supplied in bulk, the following allowances on the regulated issues for each accounting unit may be made and charged in the accounts to cover losses in cutting up :—

Issues under 50 lb.	Nil
,, of 50 and under 100 lb.	½ lb.
,, ,, 100 ,, ,, 150 ,, ...	1 ,,
,, ,, 150 ,, ,, 200 ,, ...	1½ ,,
,, ,, 200 ,, ,, 250 ,, ...	2 ,,

and so on.

42. Spirit, cocoa or tea ration.—On very exceptional occasions, a free ration of 1-oz. (Fl) (1/20-pint) of rum or 1-pint of cocoa or tea may, if available, be issued under the authority of the divisional commander when certified by the senior medical officer to be necessary for safeguarding the health of the troops. The scale of ingredients for 1 pint cocoa and tea, when issued under the authority of this paragraph, will be cocoa ½-oz. or tea ⅙-oz., milk, fresh, 2 oz., or milk, tinned, ⅘-oz., and sugar ½-oz.

43. Field ration.—In case of active operations in the field a special scale of rations, dependent on the climate and the circumstances of the expedition, will be fixed by the G.O.C.-in-C. and reported to the War Office.

44. Diets in military detention barracks and prisons, and barrack detention rooms.—The scale of diets for soldiers confined in military detention barracks, prisons or barrack detention rooms will be promulgated :—

(a) Home Stations—in the pamphlet " Home Service Ration Scales " ;

(b) Stations abroad—in the local allowance regulations or command orders ;

(c) Ill-conducted and idle soldiers under sentence—in the " Rules for Military Detention Barracks and Military Prisons ", which will also lay down the conditions governing the issue of such diets.

45. Prisoners in civil gaols.—When any soldier is in a civil gaol in the United Kingdom, either as a prisoner or awaiting trial for a civil or a military offence, or as a deserter, no charge on account of his subsistence will be admissible in army accounts. The rate to be paid for prisoners in colonial prisons will be such as the G.O.C.-in-C. may order, such rate being included in the local allowance regulations or command orders of the command. Charges should appear in the accounts of the unit to which the soldier belongs.

46. Hospital diets.—The scales of diets for patients in military hospitals at home and at stations abroad are promulgated in the pamphlet " Military Hospital Dietary ".

III.—RATION ALLOWANCE IN CASH

47. When admissible.—Ration allowance in cash will be issuable to an officer or soldier who is in receipt of full pay, other than pay at an inclusive rate which includes an element in lieu of rations, in the following circumstances :—

(a) While at duty :—

(i) unmarried—when, in receipt of lodging allowance, save when in exceptional circumstances, although in receipt of lodging allowance he becomes a dining member of a mess because he is unable to obtain meals in lodgings ;

(ii) unmarried—in any case where the O.C. unit certifies that he is satisfied that it would impose serious hardship on an officer or soldier if he were required to be a dining member of a mess ;

(iii) married—when he is living with his family ;

(iv) married—when separated from his family and in receipt of lodging allowance or when ineligible for lodging allowance, if the conditions in (ii) above are fulfilled ;

(v) any officer or soldier in receipt of the nightly rate of travelling allowances.

(b) While not on duty :—

(i) while on sick leave ;

(ii) when on ordinary leave, furlough or short pass involving absence from duty for a period exceeding 48 hours ;

(iii) when unposted and not attached to a unit for duty ;

(iv) when unable for military reasons to remain with or return to the unit, formation, etc., to which he is posted or attached ;

(v) to a recruit who has not been finally passed into the service where service messing cannot be provided, or who joins his unit too late to be included in the ration return for days on which he is entitled to pay.

Digitized by Google

48. Personnel fed in mess.—A cash allowance, within the limits of the current rate of ration allowance for the command, may be drawn by the O.C. unit and expended by the messing officer in providing suitable foodstuffs for each officer or other rank who is normally fed in mess but who, during sickness or other disability, is unable to consume the normal food provided.

49. Rate of ration allowance.—The rate of ration allowance will represent the retail value of the ration issued to personnel fed in mess, increased by 20 per cent. to meet the extra cost of individual purchase and by an element for preparation, cooking and service. At home stations the rate will be promulgated by the Army Council from time to time. At stations abroad the rate will be determined from time to time by the G.O.C.-in-C. in accordance with instructions from the Army Council and will be promulgated in command orders.

50. Special rates.—In exceptional circumstances where the cost of subsistence exceeds the allowance normally admissible, the Army Council, on the recommendation of the G.O.C.-in-C., may approve a special rate of ration allowance subject to such conditions as they may lay down.

51. Special rate for all meals out.—To meet the extra expense involved in the purchasing of meals in canteens and restaurants, soldiers at home stations, whose duties are such that they must regularly take all their meals away from mess, lodgings, or billet may be granted such special rate of ration allowance as may be determined by the Army Council from time to time. The entitlement to the allowance will remain stable throughout the pay account period * and will not be disturbed by minor variations affecting entitlement but will continue for so long as the individual is required as a normal condition of his employment to take all his meals away from mess, lodgings or billet. The occasional taking of meals at normal residence is not a disqualification for the special rate, but it will not be admissible for personnel who from time to time, but not as a normal every day occurrence, are obliged by the nature of their duties to purchase all their meals in restaurants. Individuals required to deputize temporarily for personnel who normally draw the special rate, but whose entitlement is temporarily withdrawn, e.g. grant of leave or admittance to hospital, may draw the special rate for the actual period of temporary duty, provided that the conditions of issue are fulfilled and the period of temporary employment is not less than seven days.

* The "pay account" period is the Saturday following the last Friday in a month to the last Friday in the following month.

IV.—ISSUES ON REPAYMENT

52. Rations on repayment.—Personnel in receipt of ration allowance will not normally be permitted to obtain rations on repayment. In special circumstances the issue of rations on repayment may be authorized by the G.O.C.-in-C. for persons not ordinarily entitled to receive them. When such authority has been given, the charge for rations so provided will be as follows :—

(a) rations supplied as cooked meals—the current rate of ration allowance ;

Where casual meals are supplied, recovery will be effected at the following fractions of the daily rate referred to at (a) above :—

Breakfast	One-third
Lunch or dinner	One-third
Tea	One-sixth
Supper	One-sixth

53. At stations abroad where a rate of ration allowance is not assessed locally, the charges will be related to the United Kingdom rate of allowance.

54. The O.C. the unit concerned will be responsible for collecting the amount due, charges for occasional meals being recovered at the time such meals are served.

55. Where the Army Council has authorized the issue of rations on repayment to cadets of the Senior and Junior Training Corps, the Army Cadet Force and enlisted Royal Army Service Corps (Expeditionary Force Institute) personnel, the charges to be raised will be determined by the Army Council. Where rations are issued on repayment to military families residing at stations abroad, the charges will be on the basis set out in para. 52 (a) or (b) above.

56. At stations abroad rations may be issued on repayment to Queen's Army Schoolmistresses and pupil teachers. The issues will not exceed one ration (excepting any commuted portion) daily for each person and the proportion of the various items of the scale in use will be strictly adhered to.

V.—ICE FOR THE PRESERVATION OF FOOD AND COOLING OF DRINKING WATER AT STATIONS ABROAD

57. Officers.—The provision of ice at stations abroad for officers and nursing officers of the Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service is covered by local overseas allowance. Where available from army sources issues of ice to officers and nursing officers of the Queen Alexandra's Imperial Nursing Service may, however, be made on repayment.

58. Other ranks.—At certain stations abroad, ice may be issued free when necessary for the preservation of food, and also, in specially authorized cases, for the cooling of drinking water. The stations at which ice will be issued free and the conditions governing such issues will be subject to the approval of the Army Council, and when approved, will be promulgated in the local allowance regulations or command orders.

59. The free issue of ice for the preservation of food is limited to married families of other ranks, to serjeants' and men's messes, and to Queen's Army Schoolmistresses (unless married to and living with an officer or soldier).

60. (a) Where the issue of ice to personnel referred to in para. 59 is impracticable, a cash allowance equal to the retail cost of the authorized scale issue may be allowed.

(b) The cash allowance issuable in lieu of ice to such personnel who certify that a privately owned refrigerator is used by them will be equal to the army cost only (i.e. wholesale price) of the authorized scale issue.

61. Ice, or cash allowance in lieu, will not be admissible during leave, except for any period spent at the duty station.

62. Issues of ice required for cooling drinking water, will be limited to serjeants' messes and non-commissioned officers' and men's dining rooms and will in no case be made where mechanical water-coolers are provided.

provided that for no office will a sum in excess of £4 be allowed unless the G.O.C.-in-C. is satisfied that £4 will not cover necessary expenditure, in which case he may authorize such additional sum for offices with rooms in excess of five as he considers necessary within a total of 15*s.* for each room. Where more than one office is accommodated in the same building, the rooms will be grouped together for the purpose of fixing the rate issuable.

681. Special rate.—When a special allowance is required on account of the exceptional construction of the building, or from other causes, the G.O.C.-in-C. may fix at his discretion a rate of allowance differing from that laid down in para. 680, his authority in original being attached as a voucher in support of the first charge in the accounts.

682. Claims, charges and mode of expending.—The allowance will be claimed for the whole financial year in advance in the month of April, on A.F. P 1939, and will be paid and charged in the accounts of the command or district paymaster concerned. The allowance, although drawn for the whole year in one sum, should be expended in quarterly instalments. Proportionate adjustments will subsequently be made in respect of any accommodation added or relinquished during the financial year. Each officer when applying for a cleaning allowance will show on A.F. P 1939 the amount at 31st March of the unexpended balance (if any) of the previous year's allowance and the allowance for the ensuing year will be abated by this amount. In no event will the unspent balance be available to augment the following year's entitlement.

The rates for persons who are not entitled to be treated in military hospitals, but are specially admitted under proper authority, will be fixed by the Army Council, in cases where they are not laid down above.

Charges under the preceding conditions will be recovered for the period of treatment in a military hospital, including the day of discharge but excluding the day of admission of the patient except in the case of personnel under sub-paras. of hospital treatment on this account will be considered as under continuous treatment, but only the days actually spent in hospital will be reckoned. Patients suffering from other disabilities due to their own fault, will similarly be considered as under continuous treatment if they are again admitted to hospital as a result of misconduct, neglect or carelessness within 7 days from the expiration of the previous period of hospital treatment, but only the days actually spent in hospital will count towards the 30-day period. In the case of patients under private treatment in hospital for disabilities due to their own fault, who are admitted for further treatment to a military hospital, the number of days during which they have been under private treatment will be taken into account in assessing the period of 30 days if they are admitted to a military hospital within the period of 14 days or 7 days specified above as the case may be.

820. Treatment in civil hospital.—When a soldier, or other person, entitled to treatment in a military hospital is, for special reasons, treated at the public cost in a civil hospital, as provided in Regulations for the Medical Services of the Army, the rate of charge prescribed by para. 819 will be recovered in respect of the period for which charges for maintenance and treatment are accepted against public funds, and credited to the public.

821. The rate of charge laid down in para. 819 for the families of soldiers will also be recovered in any case where treatment in a military, military families' or civil hospital continues after a soldier has been discharged from the Army or transferred to the Royal Army Reserve.

822. Maintenance in civil mental hospital.—The cost of maintenance of a soldier temporarily detained in a civil mental hospital is chargeable against the public, subject to the charge, if any, prescribed by para. 819 being deducted from the man's pay. It should be charged in the accounts of the unit to which the soldier belongs, the recovery being credited in the same account.

823. Local troops abroad.—In the case of local troops at stations abroad hospital charges, when due, will be at the rate laid down in the local regulations, where the rate is not provided for in para. 819.

110/GENERAL/5306 A.O. 91/1947

Rules of Procedure, 1926.—Provisional Amendments

1. His Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to approve amendments to the Rules of Procedure, 1926, to come into operation in the United Kingdom on the 15th September, 1947, and in Commands outside the United Kingdom as from the date notified in each case by the G.O.C.-in-C., in General Orders.

2. The Rules are contained in the Manual of Military Law, 1929, and the amendments are embodied in Amendments No. 39 to that manual which are being issued to all concerned.

3. These rules may be cited as the Rules of Procedure (Provisional Amendment) Rules (No. 25) 1947.

110/GENERAL/5306 A.O. 92/1947

Discipline—Courts-Martial Procedure

1. The Committee on Courts-Martial Procedure (still sitting) has submitted the following recommendations in relation to future courts-martial procedure :—

(a) The judge-advocate should cease to retire with the court when it is considering its finding. For the present, there should be no change in the practice whereby he retires with the court for consideration of sentence :

Digitized by Google

(b) Findings and sentence should be announced by courts-martial forthwith in open court after they have been determined:

(c) A copy of the charge-sheet should be supplied confidentially to all the members of a court-martial shortly in advance of the trial.

2. The above recommendations have been accepted by the Army Council. Consequential amendments to the Rules of Procedure, 1926, have been promulgated (see A.O. 91 of 1947).

3. The new court-martial procedure will come into operation in the United Kingdom on the 15th September, 1947. In Commands outside the United Kingdom, the new procedure will come into operation as from the date notified in each case by the G.O.C.-in-C. in General Orders. Three copies of the General Order in which such notification appears will be sent to the Under-Secretary of State (A.G. 3B), The War Office, London, S.W.1.

4. Care will be taken to ensure that all courts-martial observe the amended procedure on and after the relevant dates. Attention is invited particularly to the new Rules of Procedure 52 (B) and 63 (B) and (C), from which it will be seen that the judge-advocate is excluded from the deliberations of the court only when the court is considering or reconsidering its finding on the charge (i.e., its verdict). He is entitled to be present at all other deliberations in closed court.

ARMY ORDERS NOW PUBLISHED FOR THE FIRST TIME

ROYAL WARRANT

100/GENERAL/2037 A.O. 120/1947

Grant of Short Service Regular Army Commissions

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS WE deem it expedient to modify the provisions for the grant of short service commissions in Our Regular Army, made in Our Warrant dated 10th May, 1946*;

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that, with effect from the 1st July, 1947, except as hereinafter provided, such commissions shall cease to be granted under the conditions specified in the Schedule to Our aforesaid Warrant, and shall be granted under the conditions specified in the Schedule to this Our Warrant;

OUR FURTHER WILL AND PLEASURE IS that the provisions of Our Warrant for the Pay, Appointment, Promotion and Non-Effective Pay of Our Army dated 29th February, 1940, shall be generally applicable to officers granted short service Regular Army commissions, but shall, insofar as they may be inconsistent with the provisions of this Our Warrant, be regarded as modified accordingly;

LASTLY, OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that a short service Regular Army commission may be granted on or after the 1st July, 1947, under the conditions specified in Our Warrant of 10th May, 1946*, provided that an application for such commission was received in the War Office before the 1st July, 1947.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this 23rd day of October, 1947, in the 11th year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

E. SHINWELL.

SCHEDULE

1. Short Service Regular Army commissions, in such Arms of the Service as may be required, will be granted to suitable officers holding non-Regular Army Commissions, and to other ranks, for a period of eight years, of which three, four or five years will be spent on the active list and the balance on the reserve, except as provided in para. 6 below.

* Army Order 72 of 1946.

2. (a) Except in cases covered by sub-paras. (b) and (c) below, such commissions will be granted in the substantive rank equivalent to the substantive or war substantive rank held by the applicant at the time of his appointment and with his original seniority in such rank.

(b) Where, for any reason, an officer cannot be appointed in the rank equivalent to his war substantive rank he may, on his own application, be accepted in a lower rank.

(c) Officers granted short service Regular Army commissions during their period of whole-time service with the regular forces under the National Service Act, 1947, and other ranks serving in the Regular Army who are granted short service commissions through an officer cadet training unit, will be granted such commissions in the substantive rank of second-lieutenant.

3. Age limits within which officers may be granted short service Regular Army commissions will be as laid down by the Army Council from time to time.

4. Officers granted short service Regular Army commissions will receive pay and allowances at current rates appropriate to their rank and Arm of the Service, subject to any change which may be introduced for the Army at any time.

5. On the satisfactory completion of the full period of service on the active list for which officers have engaged, gratuities will be payable at the rates shown below :—

For 3 years' service	£300
,, 4 ,, ,, ...	£400
,, 5 or more years' service ...	£500

No gratuity will be payable to officers whose active list service is prematurely terminated for misconduct, but a proportionate gratuity may be allowed in certain other cases of premature termination.

6. Ex-Regular Army soldiers holding emergency commissions whose service is at present reckonable towards an award under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 634 (as promulgated by Amendments (No. 110), notified in Army Order 59 of 1944), may be granted short service Regular Army commissions for a minimum period of service on the active list of seven years, or such longer period as is required to enable them to complete 15 years' service reckoning towards retirement on retired pay under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 541 (as amended by Amendments (Nos. 112 and 129) notified in Army Orders 90 of 1944 and 34 of 1945).

Ex-Regular Army soldiers, however, who have already completed 15 years' actual service before their application for a short service commission, may be accepted for five years, where employment cannot be foreseen for them for a longer period. No subsequent reserve liability will be attached to such commissions.

Short service Regular Army commissioned service will reckon towards an ultimate award of a gratuity or pension under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 634 (as promulgated by Amendments (No. 110), notified in Army Order 59 of 1944) as if it had been given in an emergency commission.

7. Other ranks who enlisted during the emergency on a Regular Army engagement, and post-war Regular Army enlisted other ranks, who are accepted for short service Regular Army commissions may be granted such commissions for periods as in para. 1 above. If, however, the period of colour service for which the applicant has enlisted on his Regular Army engagement exceeds five years, a commission may be granted for such longer period as will enable him to complete such colour service on the active list for which he enlisted. In such cases where the termination of the period served on the active list would result in only a part of the year being served in addition, the applicant will be required to serve to complete the year and will be accepted for such period.

8. An officer who is granted a permanent commission during the currency of his short service commission will not be eligible for any gratuity or retired pay under the above terms, but will reckon his service on a short service commission towards an ultimate non-effective award under the conditions applicable to permanent Regular Army officers.

Army Council's Instructions to the Foregoing Warrant

1. The provisions of this Warrant do not apply to officers of the R.M.P., R. Pioneer Corps, R.A.Ch.D., R.A.M.C. (other than administrative and technical officers), R.A.D.C., R.A.E.C., R.A.V.C. (except quarter-masters and non-veterinary officers), General List, Q.A.I.M.N.S. and cognate Services, and A.T.S.

2. Applications will be submitted in accordance with A.C.I. 505 of 1947.

3. The grant to an officer of a short service Regular Army commission will depend on the prospects of employing him for the full period on the active list, having regard to his age and rank. Commissions will not be granted in ranks above that of major.

4. Para. 1 of the Schedule.—It is proposed to provide in regulations made under the National Service Act, 1947, that all ranks granted short service commissions while carrying out a period of compulsory full-time service with the colours, under the provisions of that Act, shall be lreleased from their liability for further part-time National Service.

5. Para. 3 of the Schedule.—Applicants will not be accepted for combatant commissions in the R.A.C., R.A., R.E., R. Signals, Infantry or R.A.S.C., unless they fall within the following age limits for their ranks:—

War substantive major, age 35 years and under.
" " captain, age 30 years and under.
Below captain, age 25 years and under.

For the remaining Arms there will be no age limits.

6. Para. 7 of the Schedule.—Regular Army other ranks during their first period of colour service on a Regular Army engagement, other than an extended service engagement, who attend the Royal Military Academy Selection Board, Sandhurst, and who are graded insufficiently high for the grant of a permanent Regular Army commission, may be graded as suitable for the grant of a short service Regular Army commission after training at an O.C.T.U. In this case, they may attend an O.C.T.U. before final consideration for the grant of such commission. Such entry to an O.C.T.U. will be competitive, as the number of vacancies for short service Regular Army commissions will be governed by a quota. Similarly, Regular Army other ranks during the first period of their colour service, who do not wish to be considered for a permanent Regular Army commission, or who are over the age limit for attendance at the Royal Military Academy, Sandhurst, may apply to come before a War Office Selection Board with a view to being selected for attendance at an O.C.T.U. in order to qualify for a short service Regular Army commission.

12A Supplementary marriage allowance

A supplementary marriage allowance will be admissible for a limited period for certain officers and other ranks as follows :—

Officers

(a) Officers of the rank of lieutenant-colonel and below in receipt of marriage allowance, who were serving as officers on 30th June, 1946, and whose service has been continuous since that date, will be entitled to supplementary marriage allowance, except as provided in sub-paras. (d) to (g) below, at the rates and during the periods stated below, provided that—

(i) they were in receipt of allowances of not less than 6*s.* 0*d.* a day in respect of their families on 30th June, 1946 ; or

(ii) would have become entitled to an allowance in respect of their families of not less than 6*s.* 0*d.* a day on the birth of a child in respect of whom pre-natal allowance was admissible before 1st July, 1946 ; or

(iii) would have qualified under (i) or (ii) above had they not been in occupation of quarters, or in receipt of consolidated rates of pay, or temporarily not in receipt of full pay and allowances (see Part II of the Schedule, sub-paras. 3 (e) and (f)).

Where special rates applicable to overseas stations were in issue on 30th June, 1946, the above rules will be applied on the basis of the rates which would have been in issue had the family been in the United Kingdom.

(b) Officers commissioned from the ranks after 30th June, 1946, will not be entitled to supplementary marriage allowance at the rates in (a) above. If such officers are 25 years of age or over they may receive supplementary marriage allowance to the extent to which the allowances in respect of their families, including supplementary marriage allowance, which would have been admissible had they continued to serve in the rank held immediately before being commissioned, exceeds the rate of marriage allowance appropriate to their current rank. Payments made under this arrangement will, however, not exceed the rate of marriage allowance and supplementary marriage allowance of the officer's current rank.

Officers commissioned from the ranks after 30th June, 1946, who are under 25 years of age, and who would have been entitled to supplementary marriage allowance had they remained in the ranks, will be entitled to supplementary marriage allowance until they reach the age of 25 years at the rate prescribed for warrant officers.

SPECIAL ARMY ORDER

THE WAR OFFICE,
9th December, 1947

114/GENERAL/8114 A.O. 143/1947

The following letter has been received by Field Marshal The Viscount Montgomery from H.R.H. Princess Elizabeth in appreciation of the wedding present sent to her on behalf of all ranks of the Army.

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

18th November, 1947.

Dear Lord Montgomery.

I am delighted with the magnificent Wedding Present which all ranks of the Army have so kindly subscribed to give me. I have already bought with it an oil painting of London by Marlow, which both Lieutenant Mountbatten and I think perfectly beautiful, and which will always hang in our house. Of the remainder I shall spend some at leisure on things which I really need, and I am delighted to give £5,000 to the Army Benevolent Fund, so that others, too, can share the happiness which I feel on this great occasion in my life. Would you please let it be known to all who subscribed to give me this wonderful present, how pleased I am and how very much I value the kind thoughts which it represents.

Yours sincerely
Elizabeth

SCHEDULE

Acting rank.

1. All acting rank will be relinquished and no further grants of acting rank will be made.

Temporary rank.

2. An officer selected otherwise than as an interim measure to fill a vacancy carrying higher rank than his own substantive or war substantive rank will be granted the appropriate temporary rank.

Temporary performance of duties carrying higher rank.

3. Where, pending the assumption by the selected officer, it is necessary as an interim measure for an officer to fill a vacancy in establishment which normally carries higher rank than his own, he will not be granted the higher rank but will receive the pay of that rank provided that he fills the vacancy and performs the duties thereof for a period of more than 21 consecutive days.

Officers holding paid acting rank under the provisions of Army Orders 153 or 155 of 1944, or under the rules* in force on 31st October, 1947, relating to retention of rank on courses, will relinquish such rank but will continue to receive pay for it for the remainder of the periods authorized by those Army Orders or rules.

The periods during which officers receive the pay of a higher rank under this paragraph will not reckon as service in the higher rank for the purposes of increments of pay.

War Substantive rank.

4. No further grants of war substantive rank will be made. An officer who on 1st November, 1947, holds the war substantive rank of major or below will retain that rank subject to any future modifications of the rules.

5. An officer holding the war substantive rank of lieutenant-colonel or above will, on relinquishing the appointment, be treated as follows:—

(a) He will retain under the existing provisions governing the retention of temporary rank any such rank he may hold.

(b) He will retain his war substantive rank for a period of 122 days from the date of relinquishment of his appointment or, if holding temporary rank, from the date of relinquishment of such temporary rank under (a) above, subject to (c), (d) and (e) below.

* A.C.I. 1145 of 1944.

(c) If during the period under (b) or (d) (iii) an officer is employed in a vacancy appropriate to his war substantive rank or a higher rank, he will retain his war substantive rank as follows:—

(i) If the duration of the new appointment is 122 days or more, he will retain his war substantive rank while holding the appointment and on relinquishing it will be eligible for retention of war substantive rank for a further period of 122 days under (b) above.

(ii) If the duration of the appointment is less than 122 days he will retain his war substantive rank while holding the appointment and on relinquishing it will retain war substantive rank for the balance (if any) of the original 122 days under (b) above.

(d) If, during the period under (b) above, an officer is posted to or from a command overseas (for whatever reason), he will retain his war substantive rank:—

(i) for any period during which he is under orders to proceed to or from a command overseas; and

(ii) for any period spent on passage to or from a command overseas; and

(iii) for a period of 122 days from date of disembarkation or from date of relinquishment of temporary rank; but if during this period he is posted to a vacancy in a lower rank, he will not retain his war substantive rank, while filling such vacancy, beyond the original period in (b) (excluding (i) and (ii) above).

(e) If, during the period of 122 days under (b) or (d) (iii) above, an officer is ordered to attend a course or is on sick leave for a continuous period during which he is admitted to hospital, the period of the course or illness will not count against the period during which he is entitled to retain war substantive rank.

(f) On conclusion of the retention periods authorized above, he will revert to his substantive rank or to the rank of war substantive major, whichever may be the higher.

Substantive rank.

6. (a) Officers (other than those serving under the conditions applicable to quarter-masters) who, under existing authorities, are eligible for war substantive rank on completion of specified periods of service (except that granted under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 182, second paragraph), will, if such periods are completed after 31st October, 1947, be granted substantive rank instead of war substantive rank.

(b) Quarter-masters (other than those in (c) below), serving on emergency or short service commissions who complete the periods of reckonable service laid down in Army Order 141 of 1946, Section I, after 31st October, 1947, will be granted the appropriate substantive rank.

(c) Quarter-masters of the Royal Malta Artillery serving on emergency or short service commissions will be granted substantive promotion after the same periods of qualifying service as are laid down from time to time for the promotion of quarter-masters holding permanent regular commissions in the Royal Malta Artillery.

(d) Officers referred to in sub-paras. (a), (b) and (c) above who had completed the periods of reckonable service specified therein before 1st November, 1947, will be granted the appropriate substantive rank from the latter date.

Army Council's instructions on the foregoing Warrant.

1. The following instructions will take the place of the Army Council's instructions to Articles 178 to 182, Pay Warrant, 1940.

2. Substantive rank.

The substantive promotion of officers holding permanent Regular Army commissions on the Active List will continue in accordance with the provisions of Army Order 141 of 1946. The substantive promotion of Territorial Army officers who are in full time employment with the Regular Army will continue under the provisions of Army Order 48 of 1945 as may be amended from time to time.

All substantive promotions will be administered by the War Office.

3. Acting rank.

Although all acting rank is to be relinquished, officers holding such paid rank on 31st October, 1947, who continue to fill the higher vacancy will continue to receive the pay of that rank in accordance with paragraph 3 of the Schedule to the Warrant, or be eligible for the grant of temporary rank under the provisions of paragraph 2 of the Schedule.

Where an officer, on 1st November, 1947, is filling a higher vacancy but has not completed the full period necessary to qualify for paid acting rank, he will similarly be dealt with under paragraphs 2 or 3 of the Schedule.

If the officer is dealt with under paragraph 3 the period immediately before 1st November, 1947, will count towards the qualifying period for pay of the rank.

In either case the officer will, on completion of the period previously required for paid acting rank, including the period immediately before 1st November, 1947, be granted paid acting rank for this last-mentioned period.

Officers who, on or after 1st November, 1947, become entitled to the pay of a higher rank under paragraph 3 of the Schedule to the Warrant will cease to be entitled to such pay on ceasing, for any reason, to perform the higher duties.

4. Temporary rank.

(a) Temporary rank when applicable will only be granted to officers who fill vacancies within approved establishments.

(b) Temporary rank may be retained by officers in the circumstances and for the periods laid down from time to time and at present contained in Part II of A.C.I. 1144 of 1944.

(c) An officer, while he remains on the strength of his unit or formation, will not be required to relinquish temporary rank when absent on:—

(i) Normal leave or sick leave.

(ii) Temporary duty. When an officer is absent on temporary duty in excess of 61 days or when it is known that such absence is likely to exceed 61 days the case will be referred to the War Office by the quickest available means for decision whether such officer shall remain on the strength of his unit or formation.

(d) An officer who is taken prisoner of war or becomes missing while holding temporary rank will retain such rank so long as he is a prisoner of war or missing (see Army Order 155 of 1944) and for such subsequent period as may be authorized.

(e) An officer who is holding temporary rank on the date he is struck off the strength of his unit on account of wounds, injuries or sickness will retain such temporary rank in accordance with the provisions of Army Order 153 of 1944.

(f) Temporary rank will be retained or relinquished by officers attending courses and officers placed in arrest in accordance with current regulations.

(g) The provisions of (b), (e) and (f) above are under review and are subject to modification.

5. War substantive rank.

(a) An officer who, during his retention of war substantive rank under paragraph 5 of the Schedule to the Warrant, is posted to an appointment appropriate to a lower rank will nevertheless retain his war substantive rank for the full period of the original 122 days under paragraph 5 (b) of the Schedule.

(b) The period of the course in paragraph 5 (e) of the Schedule to the Warrant will include any period before the course after an officer has received orders to attend.

(c) War substantive rank relinquished under paragraph 5 of the Schedule to the Warrant will not be re-granted.

6. Strength.

The rules for striking officers off the strength of their units when absent from duty on account of sickness are contained in A.C.I. 1138 of 1946, as amended, and the pamphlet "Unit Guide to Documentation in a Theatre of War (Overseas)".

7. Casualties.

Entitlement and cessation of entitlement under paragraph 3 of the Schedule to the pay of a higher rank while temporarily performing the duties of that rank will be notified in General Routine Orders or Command Orders, in the form:—

"..... to act as ....., (date) ....."
"..... ceased to act as ..... (date) ....."

8. Promotion

(a) Promotion to the temporary rank of lieutenant-colonel and above will be made by the War Office through Selection Boards.

(b) Promotion to the temporary rank of major and below will be made by General Officers Commanding-in-Chief or General Officers Commanding, Commands, with powers to delegate authority for such promotion to subordinate commanders of divisions or equivalent formations.

(c) All promotions to and relinquishments of temporary rank will be published in General Routine Orders or Command Orders as may be applicable.

(d) Promotions to temporary rank will not be published in the London Gazette except in the case of general officers whose appointments and relinquishments of rank and appointments will continue to be published in the London Gazette.

9. The above provisions do not affect Articles 404 and 408 of the Pay Warrant, 1940, where the terms of these Articles apply.
